padhle beta pyaar wyar ke chakkar mei parega to kahi ka nai rahega if you study you will have a good future this is a claim often repeated to children and teenagers by parents and teachers in many parts of india they often forget that there is also a world beyond studies a world of creative pursuit and more than it my higher education and further career thoughts have been completely haunting me there is no polite polished way of saying this studying from one of the best schools in my area with the most chosen stream in the district has not yet benefitted me in any way many of us are either forced or brainwashed to choose any stream after school by our parents who are labouring under the illusion that correct stream is the gateway to money and success i always had a doubt but now years after studying and still i know for sure that studying what we like and doing what we enjoy may not always lead to money and success but it is definitely the route to happiness the apparent shift in power relations between the developed and developing world along with the increasing emphasis that national and transnational organisations place on the role of soft power in global foreign policy has profound implications for global film culture focusing primarily on the brics countries brazil russia india china and south africa this innovative collection examines the diverse and often competing ways the group as a whole engages with film as a medium of artistic expression and as a soft power resource the contributors explore the wider implications for world cinema of its members differing and dynamic positions in the global media landscape and the book includes a comparative analysis by examining the post imperial soft power of the uk at the time of brexit
