a proclamation of Christ's sufficiency that frees us from self-righteousness and keeps us anchored through storms stemming from a year of great turmoil. Tchividjian details the power of the gospel in his life into the exegetical and theological underpinnings of the Westminster Confession's chapter on the law by delivering an in-depth analysis of Anthony Burgess's Vindiciae Legis. After a brief introduction to Burgess and his historical context, Casselli details the logical course of Burgess's book, considering the law as given to Adam, the law given to Moses, and finally the proper relation between law and gospel along the way. Casselli opens up such controversial points as natural law, the covenant of works, the continuing obligation to the moral law, and the diverse administrations of one unified covenant of grace. What we see is a pastoral theology developed in a richly complex environment where technical distinctions were warranted given the polemical context where the broad history of the Western Catholic tradition was deeply respected. Where a covenantal hermeneutic was consistently applied to scripture and where all theological formulations grew out of detailed linguistic exegesis of particular texts of scripture in the context of the broader ecclesiastical community. Table of Contents: 1. Introduction, 2. The Life of Anthony Burgess, 3. Creation and Law, 4. Law Given to Moses, 5. Law and Gospel, 6. Conclusions, Appendix A: Sabbath Series Description, Appendix B: Primary Source Material in the Principal Documents of the Westminster Assembly Series, The Studies on the Westminster Assembly provides access to classic studies that have not been reprinted and to new studies providing some of the best existing research on the assembly and its members.

This insightful book is a call to action for Christians to get out of their comfort zones and become Christian extremists. A positive form of extremism will result in a move of God that can transform this world in an incredible way, not through anger, bombs, and pain, but through love, commitment, and sacrifice. Compassion and humility shine through this appeal for all Christians to be either all out or all in when responding to Jesus's final command to go and make disciples of all nations.

halfway is no way to live quit holding back quit holding out it's time to go all in and all out for god the good news is this if you don't hold out on god god won't hold out on you if you give everything you have to follow jesus you'll receive amazing spiritual rewards but this reality also comes with a deeper truth nothing belongs to you not even you in all in student edition mark and parker batterson explore what going all in can mean for your life sharing unique illustrations and unforgettable stories as well as compelling accounts of biblical characters throughout they demonstrate the amazing things that can happen when you surrender to the lordship of jesus christ mark batterson writes when did we start believing that god wants to send us to safe places to do easy things jesus didn't die to keep us safe he died to make us dangerous christians who want to take the next step in their faith walk need look no further it's time to ante up and go all in with god the gospel costs nothing you can't earn it or buy it it can only be received as a free gift which is compliments of god's grace it doesn't cost anything but it demands everything it demands that we go all in putting all that we have into god's hands but why do so many christians hesitate to do that and when did we start believing that the gospel is an insurance plan we're afraid that if we go all in that we might miss out on what life has to offer but jesus did not die to keep us safe he died to make us dangerous so let's step out of spiritual no man's land and kneel at the foot of the cross of christ and surrender to his lordship it's time to dethrone yourself and enthroned christ as king and pastor mark batterson is here to show you how using his customary vivid contemporary illustrations as well as biblical characters like shamgar elisha jonathan and even judas you will be challenged to trade what batterson calls inverted christianity for true discipleship as you strip away your excuses and inhibitions and follow god completely it's now or never are you ready to go all in and all out for god also available all in student edition video curriculum and study guide
