the liberating work of god calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing the challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts patrick oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others part two examines the biblical and early christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of god about being co opted by society part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians wolfhart pannenberg jürgen moltmann sarah coakley and jean vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community
