Christmas for me is about making and sharing good food with family and friends and bringing everyone together to celebrate another year. To make this day special, most of us light a few candles, pop up a few decorations, and buy traditional food: Christmas cake, Christmas pudding, and mince pies. However, I have always gone that one step further at Christmas, but then decorating is my first love. I just love to make every room look like magic for my family, and the Christmas table is no exception. So I have put together this special collection of projects that will make your Christmas table special. Whether you make one, two, or all of the projects inside the book, all the projects come with clear, step-by-step instructions, full-sized templates, no resizing needed, and the book is highly illustrated with stunning photography shot in my very own home.
