familiarity with guarantees and how they function under various national jurisdictions are essential for principals guarantors and beneficiaries of international contracts this enormously useful handbook provides a practical overview of the guarantee regimes in twenty eight european countries with country by country contributions from regional expert practitioners and academics for easy comparison each country report follows the same structure from preliminary discussion on the provisions of a guarantee to its negotiation drafting and enforcement focusing on specific issues to consider at every stage each chapter provides detailed information and guidance on such aspects as the following who can issue guarantees limitations as to the type of obligations which may be subject to a guarantee issues relating to the protection of the contracting parties formal requirements which need to be complied with stamp duties or other tax payable presence of implied terms legal framework applicable to joint and several obligations modification of the situation conditions for release and actions to be taken to ensure a valid release opening of bankruptcy proceedings against the principal court enforcement and incorporation of uniform rules each chapter includes references and model guarantee forms that readers can use to draft their own documents invaluable to corporate counsel and law firms with an international practice this peerless handbook will prove the first order of business in trade negotiations across europe among european nations themselves as well as with their global partners with the increase in commercial transactions within the fifty four independent african states and at the international level it has become apparent that most of the legal framework for arbitration across the continent require reform accordingly in recent years as this first in depth treatment of arbitration in africa shows jurisprudence from national courts of various african jurisdictions demonstrates that the courts are becoming more pro arbitration and judges increasingly better understand that their role is to support or complement the arbitral process this book documents the second soas arbitration in africa conference held in lagos in june 2016 in thirteen lucid chapters african practitioners and academics and european specialists in african legal and arbitral systems provide a remarkably thorough overview of the relation of courts and arbitration in the continent among the matters that arise for discussion are the disposition of courts in africa towards arbitration whether supportive or interventionist involvement of courts in the arbitral process before during and after an award has been rendered publication and access to arbitration related decisions from african courts enforcement of annulled awards in african states under the new york convention prospects for the establishment of a pan african investment court and how foreign courts particularly in the united states france and switzerland perceive african arbitration because of the wide range of developmental stages among africa s numerous court and legal systems part i of the book explores generic issues relevant to courts and arbitration followed by detailed descriptions including court decisions of the situation in eight specific jurisdictions egypt south africa sudan mauritius nigeria ghana rwanda and kenya the authors of these latter chapters are legal practitioners and academics from each of these countries throughout this book policy recommendations for improving access to court decisions and laws in african states are brought to the fore in its expertise based advocacy for a mutually harmonious and supportive co existence for arbitration and litigation in the context of the complexities and peculiarities of african states and its confrontation of the predominantly negative perception that often leads to arbitration flight from the continent this book helps companies investors and their advisors to base their decisions on facts and not perceptions it will be of great value to practising lawyers in arbitration as counsel or arbitrators companies doing transnational business global law firms government officials and academics in the field this book explores the theory and practice of judicial jurisdiction within the field of private international law it offers a revised look at values justifying the power of courts to hear and decide cross border disputes and demonstrates that a re conceptualisation of jurisdiction is needed rather than deriving from territorial power of states jurisdiction in civil and commercial cross border matters ought to be driven by party autonomy this autonomy can be limited by certain considerations of equality and critical state sovereign interests the book applies this normative view to the existing rules of jurisdiction in the european union and the russian federation these regimes are chosen due to their unique positions towards values in private international law and contrasting societal norms that generate and accommodate these values notwithstanding disparate cultural and political ideas these regimes reveal a surprising level of consistency when it comes to enforcement of party autonomy there is nevertheless room for improvement the book demonstrates to scholars policy makers and lawmakers that jurisdiction should be re centred around the interests of private actors and proposes ways to improve the current rules interim and emergency relief in international arbitration is a compilation of papers authored by some of the world s leading international arbitration practitioners it addresses issues relating to obtaining interim measure orders including the relevant applicable standards such as irreparable harm that various international courts and tribunals under the icsid uncitral icc scc and some domestic law jurisdictions often apply it also touches upon theoretical and practical issues involving compliance with and enforcement of interim measures in international arbitration these issues naturally are raised in the context of an ongoing discourse where tribunals have different at times imperfect tactics for encouraging compliance with their interim measures including drawing adverse inferences issuing diplomatic statements against a sovereign stopping just short of ordering interim measures splitting the sum of security for costs and allowing for reimbursement and levying heavier damages against the non complying party without changing the substantive aspects of the award this book explores these methods and identifies the latest trends in this exciting area of international law interim and emergency relief in international arbitration is intended for arbitrators practicing attorneys representatives of international arbitral institutions and academics all of whom will find this book very useful the compilation of papers and presentations in the book cover a number of jurisdictions including east asia the middle east europe and north america the three abrahamic faiths have dominated religious conversations for millennia but the relations between state and religion are in a constant state of flux this relationship may be configured in a number of ways religious norms may be enforced by the state as part of a regime of personal law or conversely religious norms may be formally relegated to the private sphere but can be brought into the legal realm through the private acts of individuals enhanced recognition of religious tribunals or religious doctrines by civil courts may create a hybrid of these two models one of the major issues in the reconciliation of changing civic ideals with religious tenets is gender equality and this is an ongoing challenge in both domestic and international affairs examining this conflict within the context of a range of issues including marriage and divorce violence against women and children and women s political participation this collection brings together a discussion of the abrahamic religions to examine the role of religion in the struggle for women s equality around the world the book encompasses both theory and practical examples of how law can be used to negotiate between claims for gender equality and the right to religion it engages with international and regional human rights norms and also national considerations within countries this book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in law and religion gender studies and human rights law doctoral thesis dissertation from the year 2023 in the subject law tax fiscal law university of strasbourg centre for international and european studies course european tax law language english abstract the thesis addresses the challenge to compare both the cjeu and the ecthr case laws dealing with issues concerning the taxpayers procedural rights those courts faced the same difficulty to guarantee the european taxpayers rights while neither the eu founding treaties nor the european convention on human rights include stipulations with sheer fiscal purpose however despite that apparent mutism the convention and eu law turn out today to be fundamental sources in the field of taxation similarly to the cjeu who impelled the member states to direct taxation downward harmonisation the ecthr set up a constructive case law which unveiled fiscal perspectives over stipulations that have not been conceived originally under such conception the thesis is focused on the contributions both european courts delivered in the field of taxpayers procedural safeguards and investigates into the existence of a common corpus all taxation phases are thus covered regardless of whether it is in the stage of tax base assessment tax liquidation or tax collection but as well and mostly so regarding the administrative oversight and prospective sanctions that could result from the thesis overpasses its initial scope in order to examine legal tools and reasoning patterns european justices in both courts have put in place in order to give rise to taxpayers real procedural safeguards
