the exhibition analyses the process through which devotion to the immaculate conception was created and popularised in early modern Spain while the immaculate conception only became dogma in 1854 as early as 1616 the Spanish monarchy became a staunch supporter of the theory turning its defence into a national priority in the following years the immaculate conception became Spain's most heartfelt devotion and a sign of national identity art played an important role in this process amounting to what we may describe as a marketing campaign this will be the focus of the museo de bellas artes forthcoming exhibition featuring more than 50 paintings sculptures prints and books borrowed from notable Spanish museums and churches such as the museo nacional de escultura de Valladolid the cathedral of Seville the biblioteca nacional de España and many others
