depersonalization is the third most common psychiatric symptom yet few people even know its name it can turn life into a nightmare of unreality and detachment from the normal sense of self this book provides information on this symptom that is useful for patients and physician alike jean paul sartre's work has been taken up by writers outside of europe particularly in the global south who have developed phenomenological and existential analyses of racism colonialism and other structures of domination sartre's philosophical concepts are fundamentally open for instance his notions of humanism bad faith and freedom as a situational committed thinker sartre worked to illuminate the urgent questions of his time at the concrete and the abstract level the creolization of sartrean thinking is consistent with the existential projects of engagement authenticity political commitment and liberation from oppression this volume asks how his european model of phenomenology was and can be transformed when it is taken up by thinkers who have lived experience with colonialism they book also engages sartre in his relation to key interlocutors especially beauvoir and fanon who were influenced by him and who influenced him in turn the book demonstrates how sartrean philosophy is productively related to africana philosophy africana phenomenology and africana existentialism this volume treats creolization not as a discrete topic but as an interdisciplinary global approach to reading and thinking each author s contribution embodies an aspect of creolizing thinking understood as the articulation of cultural and conceptual hybridity under conditions of eurocentrism epistemic colonialism and the legacies of slavery creolizing sartre re reads sartrean texts to recast existential themes through the lens of caribbean philosophies and the broader philosophies of the global south contributors lawrence bamikole sybil newton cooksey james haile iii paget henry t storm heter thomas meagher michael j monahan anthony sean neal nathalie nya kris f sealey hiroaki seki jonathan webber nausea is both the story of the troubled life of a young writer antoine roquentin who becomes convinced that inanimate objects and situations encroach on his ability to define himself on his intellectual and spiritual freedom evoking in the protagonist a sense of nausea and an exposition of one of the most influential and significant philosophical attitudes of our times existentialism is theology a dead corpse or living organism for uruguayan jesuit juan luis segundo 1925 1996 theology is dynamic freedom and existence for central themes segundo believed that theology should be transformative in human lives for a theology to be transformative there must be a connection to existence that is it must be existential yet most scholars have overlooked this assumption in critical analyses of liberation theology this prima facie connection to existence is distinguishable from existentialism as a school of philosophy by showing the significant existential dimension to segundo s theology assessing his work and contribution to twentieth century theology relates to freedom ecumenism the role of faith in society and the relationship between faith and ideologies twenty five years after his death critics and academics film makers and journalists continue to argue over sartre s legacy but certain interpretations have congealed around his iconic text nausea tending to confine it within the framework provided by the later philosophical work being and nothingness this volume opens up the text to a range of new approaches within the fields of english and comparative literature as well as philosophy and french studies under the headings text context and intertext the textual strategies at work within the novel the literary cultural and philosophical context of its production and the intertextual web within which it is situated this volume will interest a wide public of teachers students and all those who want to reconsider sartre s legacy in the twenty first century everyone knows what noise is or do they can we in fact say that one man s noise is another teenager s music is noise in fact only an auditory phenomenon or does it extend far beyond this realm if our common definitions of noise are necessarily subjective and noise is not just unpleasant sound then it merits a closer look or listen greg hainge sets out to define noise in this way to find within it a series of operations common across its multiple manifestations that allow us to apprehend it as something other than a highly subjective term that tells us very little examining a wide range of texts including sartre s novel nausea and david lynch s iconic films eraserhead and inland empire hainge investigates some of the twentieth century s most infamous noisemongers to suggest that they re not that noisy after all and it finds true noise in some surprising places the result is a thrilling and illuminating study of sound and culture at the moment there are two powerful trends developing within evangelicalism a pernicious postmodernism that demeans moral and intellectual certainty and presses for accommodation among competing truths a postmodernism that is now institutionalizing itself among many of the so called emerging churches and a resurgent five point calvinism that casts itself in opposition to postmodernism and therefore appeals to college christians who are desperately looking for a spiritual and intellectual mooring that will safeguard their beliefs from being swept into a sea of relativism in short the one postmodernism and the relativism it is producing among american intellectuals has led to the other a resurgence of five point calvinism calvinism is closely argued tightly bound and scrupulously logical its logic however is its undoing because it argues calvinist conclusions from calvinist premises that don't always line up with the biblical text the whole edifice rests on a flawed foundation that a careful exegesis of romans reveals to anyone who is equipped with a little background in pre modern thought dr arnold fruchtenbaum writes this book is highly recommended to both dispensational calvinists and covenantal calvinists as well as to arminians and also to all of those who do not see themselves in any of these categories for an honest evaluation of what the book of romans really says about god's program for salvation and god's program for israel arnold fruchtenbaum ariel ministries douglas shearer has recently retired from pastoring the church he helped to found in 1982 he and his wife sita have been married for 45 years and together have raised four children two sons and two daughters kendra greg alan and margo they are all married and raising families of their own each of them and their spouses dedicated to serving the lord
