was lucretius a fundamentalist epicurean and a mere repeater of his master s words or did he emerge as an innovative philosopher in his own right the relationship between lucretius and epicurus remains a complex and unresolved issue in epicurean scholarship to what extent was lucretius aware of intellectual debates following epicurus and how did he contribute to them the volume examines these questions through an epistemological lens focusing on the canonic the science of the criterion epicurus who died around 271 270 bc did not fully witness firsthand the impact of his doctrines on hellenistic epistemology nor could he defend them against subsequent criticisms tasks left to his successors by systematically examining the doctrine of the criterion of truth in de rerum natura this study shows how lucretius actively engaged in the defence and evolution of early epicureanism despite his fidelity to epicurus the poet displayed a remarkable philosophical ability to independently rethink and rework materials from both within the epicurean tradition and beyond thereby reiterating on a broader scale the non monolithic nature of the kepos it appeals to scholars interested in hellenistic and

roman philosophy alike
