the secret history of the lord of musashi and arrowroot reflect tanizaki s preoccupation with man s sexual and psychological nature both novellas stem in the fashion of stendhal from a purported historical investigation the secret history of the lord of musashi is the bizarre outrageous and maliciously comic tale of a sixteenth century warrior lord s fixations arrowroot describes one man s search for truth and legend in a small japanese village written in lyrical prose yet with a firm sense of humor and the absurd these two powerful novellas illustrate why tanizaki is esteemed by many as japan s greatest modern writer back cover
