the singer's audition career handbook is a comprehensive guide to the training, audition technique and professional development essential for launching and sustaining a rewarding career in classical singing. Expanding on author claudia friedlander's online collaboration with mezzo soprano joyce didonato and the weill music institute at carnegie hall, the book brings together insights from nearly seventy prominent performers, educators and opera industry professionals. Whether you are a young singer preparing for conservatory auditions, a professional opera singer or an avocational singer seeking to improve your technique and pursue local performance opportunities, this book will help you take inventory of your skills and achieve the next stages of your musical journey.

Turiddu, a young villager, is the son of Lucia and the lover of Lola, who is the wife of Alfio. Having married the latter during Turiddu's prolonged absence in military service, Turiddu wins the affections of Santuzza, whom he wrongs while in the meantime he is intimate with Lola. On Easter morning, the opening of the opera, Alfio is incidentally informed by Santuzza of his wife's unfaithful actions; he challenges Turiddu, biting the ear as was the rustic Sicilian custom. Turiddu, though regretting his past evil course, accepts the challenge and is killed by Alfio.
