exigeons en France le respect de notre religion fondamentale la liberté la liberté d'opinion et d'expression inscrite dans les droits internationaux de l'homme la liberté de pratiquer la religion de son choix autant que celle de ne pas croire la liberté de donner à penser par la dérision de dessiner au deuxième degré pour dédramatiser parfois pour dénoncer souvent mais toujours pour le rire ignorons les appels au choc des civilisations braillés par quelques mollards hystériques choc espéré par les extrêmes droites européennes la mèche de l'insignifiant pétard Mahomet danois fut trop longue pour être véritablement à l'origine de l'explosion de haine qui a secoué le monde musulman en février 2006 avec ce faux procès intenté à l'humour la preuve est faite une fois encore que la liberté d'expression n'est pas un confort mais toujours un combat depuis la révolution française la caricature participe aux débats politiques et eut certes longtemps à subir les assauts de la censure mais depuis un siècle l'histoire de la presse regorge de dessins de combat que l'on jugerait aujourd'hui abominables sans que les Français d'alors ne s'en soient émus de crainte d'être la risée de tous aucun élu ne se risquerait aujourd'hui à faire interdire une caricature désobligeante mais la réaction cette fois est organisée par des associations de diverses confessions religieuses des complexes de l'irrationnel qui instrumentent les dessins humoristiques pour hurler au blasphème devant la presse et les tribunaux après les dessins les mots puis les simples pensées gare à nous l'inquisition de nouveau nous guette en montrant les dessins interdits et de combat de l'histoire de la presse en France et dans le monde cet ouvrage donne à voir le passé pour inciter à réfléchir sur le présent

this study compares text image interaction as manifested in emblem books and related forms and the modern bande dessinée or French language comic strip it moves beyond the issue of defining the emblematic genre to examine the ways in which emblems and their modern counterparts interact with the surrounding culture and what they disclose about that culture drawing largely on primary material from the Bibliothèque nationale de France and from glasgow university library s stirling maxwell collection of emblem literature laurence grove builds on the ideas of marshall mcluhan elizabeth eisenstein and more recently neil rhodes and jonathan sawday divided into four sections theoretics production thematics and reception text image mosaics in french culture broaches topics such as theoretical approaches past and present to text image forms the question of narrative within the scope of text image creations and the reuse of visual iconography for diametrically opposed political or religious purposes the author argues that despite the gap in time between the advent of emblems and that of comic strips the two forms are analogous in that both are the products of a parallel mentality the mindsets of the periods that popularised these forms have certain common features related to repeated social conditions rather than to the pure evolution over time grove s analysis and historical contextualisation of that mentality provide insight into our own popular culture forms not only the comic strip but also other hybrid media such as advertising and the internet his juxtaposition of emblems and the bande dessinée increases our understanding of all such combinations of picture and text
