the giant dodger rivalry was considered the best in baseball by 1890 and remains the game's oldest and most storied rivalry today it's remarkable how often both teams have been good how rarely they've both been bad and how tenaciously the underdog has battled in between through 12 decades and in two sets of cities 3 000 miles apart giant and dodger partisans have rooted so passionately against each other that just as during the civil war conflicting loyalties have divided neighbors and even families this is the definitive account of the rivalry from its roots in amateur contests between new york and brooklyn teams in the 1840s to its present incarnation in california's world class cities all the greats are here ward ebbets mcgraw mathewson terry durocher reese robinson mays koufax drysdale marichal lasorda bonds the book also examines the cities that have hosted the rivalry and devotes a special section to the move to california the author argues compellingly that contrary to popular wisdom the rivalry's best years came after the move for the first time these enchanting folk tales the origins of which lie in the oral tradition have been gathered together in book form the charming selection of thirty fairy tales and legends are full of herefordian wit and wisdom and are perfect for reading aloud or alone although on the surface they may appear quaint these stories tell of strange happenings in the peaceful herefordshire countryside formed from early attempts to explain the natural and spiritual world from the saxon king of east anglia who became the patron saint of hereford cathedral and the story of the black hound of baskerville hall which inspired arthur conan doyle to a medieval love story these gripping tales have stood the test of time and remain classic texts which will be enjoyed time and again by modern readers
