like an archaeological dig liz scott s memoir this never happened goes in search of the answers to the mysteries of her family in her relentless quest to uncover the truth she mines photographs and letters leaving no one including herself unexamined this is a spare work alternatively heartbreakingly and darkly comic in the end it is about the struggle to clear away pain to make room for compassion and the challenge of making peace with questions that will never be answered even when i was funny i wasn t this funny augusten burroughs author of running with scissors have you ever embarrassed yourself so badly you thought you d never get over it have you ever wished your family could be just like everyone else s have you ever been followed to school by your father s herd of turkeys mistaken a marriage proposal for an attempted murder or got your arm stuck inside a cow ok maybe that s just jenny lawson the bestselling memoir from one of america s most outlandishly hilarious writers now which would you advise dear you see with the red i shan t be able to wear my magenta hat
