Æthelwold of Winchester is among the most famous Anglo Saxon saints during his lifetime he was the Bishop of Winchester and stood as one of the leaders of the tenth century monastic reform movement within the English church along with his peers St Dunstan and St Oswald of Worcester he remains as one of the major figures of the Anglo Catholic church and church of England St Aethelwold also stands as one of the primary catalysts for the revival of the English intellectual tradition which had been in a state of perennial disrepair during the chaos of the Viking era but was fully restored under royal patronage through the assistance of St Aethelwold

Æthelwold was a major figure in the ecclesiastical and political life of 10th century England this much-needed appraisal of his life and work views him as monastic reformer, scholar, and teacher

The life of St Aethelwold is one of the most important and interesting sources for the history of Anglo Saxon England and for the religious movements of Western Europe in the tenth century. It was written around the year 1000 by Wulfstan of Winchester who had been a student of Aethelwold. The life therefore provides a firsthand account of the activities of the man who was the central force in the Benedictine reform movement of the later tenth century. It also reveals the nature of Aethelwold's education and contacts with continental monasticism and shows why Winchester became a focal point of late Anglo Saxon culture. The present book by two well-known authorities in the field of Anglo Latin literature provides the first critical edition of Wulfstan's life. It is accompanied by a translation, extensive historical notes, and a substantial introduction which treats both Wulfstan and Aethelwold in the light of recent scholarly research. Appendices provide editions of other texts relevant to the study of Aethelwold, including a Latin life by his pupil Aelfric, some verses by a twelfth-century Ely poet, and a previously unprinted Middle English poem on the saint. This is a valuable edition of a major source which will be welcomed by all students of Anglo Saxon England.

the benedictional of st aethelwold a book of ceremonial blessings made for st aethelwold bishop of winchester from 963 984 is one of the most lavishly decorated manuscripts to have survived from anglo saxon england st aethelwold was one of the leaders of the movement of ecclesiastical and cultural renewal in tenth century england which led to the foundation of new monasteries the building of great cathedrals the compilation of major latin and english texts and the production of magnificent works of art initiating the period known as the golden age of anglo saxon art the benedictional is the most important surviving artistic product of this movement a symbol of the political religious and cultural outlook of aethelwold and his fellow reformers this beautifully produced facsimile reproduces the complete manuscript in full colour with special gold and to actual size for the first time in his introduction andrew prescott explores the historical and liturgical context of this remarkable manuscript and provides translations of some of the blessings this will be a must have addition to the library of anyone interested in anglo saxon art and history providing the chance to own a complete early english manuscript in facsimile at a very affordable price
