one of the most engaging memoirs i ve read in ages the wise and feisty voice i ve come to know and love in elizabeth cunningham s maeve chronicles fills these pages and carried me away anyone who has forged an independent path through the luminous moments and deepest shadows of a soul filled life will recognize their own spiritual adventures reflected here mirabai starr god of love in this intriguing spiritual memoir the maeve chronicles author elizabeth cunningham traces her dynamic faith journey and its relationship to her writing as the daughter of an episcopal priest author elizabeth cunningham was born into community sacred story and the mysteries of prayer for her if a writer is one who writes then a prayer is one who prays as such her praying is dynamic a dance between many opposites active vs contemplative community vs individual human vs wild and cunningham sees the divine as both incarnate and transcendent an intimate beloved and a vast mystery when she prays cunningham is both audacious and reverent asking tough questions of god raging listening intently and dancing and singing ecstatically her storyteller s imagination opens a path from the known to the unknowable from despair to wonder in this nonfiction debut cunningham recounts both her lifelong spiritual quest and her ongoing spiritual questions her journey takes her from her childhood church with its ornate liturgy to the silence of quaker meeting from her ordination as an interfaith minister to an eclectic earth centered community where she served as priestess before becoming a hermit of sorts making a church of her own backyard candid and passionate cunningham s memoir invites readers of all faiths and doubts to explore what it means to live life as a prayer in the beautiful imperiled world we share lift up your voice with strength seek the lord and his strength and seek his presence continually give thanks to the lord call upon his name make known his deeds among the people and proclaim that is name alone is exalted the lord is the everlasting god the creator of the ends of the earth before him no god was formed nor shall there be any after him he is the lord besides him there is no savior he is he who blots out our transgressions for his own sake and he will not remember our sins he satisfies the longing soul and the hungry soul he fills with good things he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good and sends rain on the just and on the unjust he rebuked the red sea and it became dry he turns rivers into a desert he turns desert into a pool of water a parched land into spring of water he provides food for those who fear him he heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds wealth and riches are in his house the lord is gracious and merciful slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love the lord is good to all and his mercy is over all that he has made his understanding is beyond measure he made the earth and created man on it it was his hands that stretched out the heavens and he commanded all their host he determines the number of stars he gives to all of them their names he covers the heavens with clouds he prepares rain for the earth he makes grass grow on the hills he gives to the beasts their food his delight is not in the strength of the horse nor his pleasure in the legs of man but the lord takes pleasure in those who fear him in those who hope in his steadfast love praise the lord for who he is praise the lord for his mighty deeds praise him according to his excellent greatness praise him in his sanctuary praise him in his mighty heavens let everything that has breath praise the lord praise the lord amen prophet joseph patrick oyone meye scribe of christ this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
