undivorced is an interesting biographical portrayal of paarthiv from kashmir in the early fifties of the last century he was transferred by his employer to calcutta only after three months of his marriage much to the utter displeasure of the new weds then of course for the obvious reasons as ill luck would have it he lost his job there for whatever reasons and went penniless he was neither able to return back home nor was he able to sustain his living as a stranger to the city there unfamiliar to him in every respect including the ethnic language for communication but being an embodiment of confidence and courage he fought his way to rise from destitution to an enviable affluence and came to be regarded as one of the most charismatic alien celebrities of the place known otherwise for its orthodox civility however in the world of audacious society there he stayed alienated from his wife who had given birth to his son only about six months of his departure from his home the couple remained alienated and estranged from each other for sixteen long years then the happy rendezvous of the family took place through a fateful coincidence brought about by parijat the mentor of their son interestingly personified by the author himself the period that followed is an absorbing description of funny incidents superstition travels to places atonement teen age romance and a saga of highs and lows offered by the life in many wishful and weird ways the novel establishes the fact of life as a spectacle of characters episodes and scenes scripted by destiny which makes it a very interesting read this book is the first coherent presentation of the latest research and practices concerned with how recent advances in mobile information and communication technology ict and the internet of things iot are utilized to enhance the value of the city and change the way that city planning and management are carried out its salient feature is the pursuit of the individual oriented evaluative point of view regarding the city this view considers the value of the city to be the total of visit values individuals feel and appreciate when they visit the city the visit value is conceptualized as the intangible asset value of the attractiveness of the city that visitors form in their minds based on their experiences and activities in the city transactions with city space and communications with other people visitors to the city may well be quite heterogeneous individuals with different motives and preferences thus to enhance the value of the city quite different visit values of heterogeneous individuals should be enhanced simultaneously which necessitates the use of ict and iot in living spaces based on this view the city utilizing ict and iot to enhance the value of the city is called the social city whereas many other books deal with the impacts of the advances in mobile ict on the city they only discuss how these advances change the infrastructure of the city but do not discuss how these technological advances can be utilized to enhance the city's value this book first develops the concept of the social city based on an individual micro behavioral approach then it presents the latest studies on technological components of the social city such as the human sensing technology for estimating individual behavior decision making and mood the visualizing technology of the thermal 3 dimensional environment of the city and the social sensing technology using social networking service sns for measuring and creating an atmosphere of city space finally it envisages the future of the social city
