in 1932 the worst year of the great depression more than twenty thousand mostly homeless world war i veterans trekked to the nation s capital to petition congress to grant them early payment of a promised bonus the hoover administration and the local government urged washington dc police chief pelham glassford to forcefully drive this bonus army out of the city instead he defied both governments for months and found food and shelter for the veterans until congress voted on their request glassford s efforts to persuade federal and local officials to deal sympathetically with the protesters were ultimately in vain but his proposed solutions though disregarded by his supervisors demonstrate that compassion and empathy could be more effective ways of dealing with radical protests than violent suppression investigates investment banking industry practices and interlocking management arrangements between commercial banks and investment banking firms this book assesses and evaluates the decision making behavior of united states presidents and their chief advisers from roosevelt to kennedy pertaining to china seeking to dispel with the notion that each administration sought policy outcomes on the basis of a rational decision making model bartley highlights the contradictions of adopted presidential decision making processes and the nature of domestic politics as playing prejudicial and debilitating roles the book demonstrates that elite decision making processes interacted with assumptions made about chinese behavior interests and attitudes only superficially and in some cases not at all misinformation and misperception were the natural outcomes reinforced by the politics of mccarthyism at home intellectual debate on china policy was squashed parochialism and nuance were shunned and information was closed off ultimately a divorce between the norm of behavior and the search for rational policy was registered in each administration the net result was a lasting and destructive cognitive dissonance to fit expectations of a china reality constructed information was ignored overlooked and distorted offering new insights into the china policies of consecutive administrations from 1941 to 1963 this volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of american foreign policy security studies and international relations
