god as author takes a thoughtful literary approach to understanding the gospel gene fant writes in the preface most of us have heard that christ is the author and finisher of our faith hebrews 12 2 so it makes sense that the gospel would be god s story as many a church message board has noted so succinctly history is his story in our easy discussions of special revelation i cannot help but wonder if we have missed something awe inspiring that may be revealed by a reversal of the lens that we turn toward narrative perhaps the gospel is not just like a story perhaps story narrative in general is like the gospel my clear conviction is that something stands behind the power of narrative in fact i believe that someone stands behind it there is an author whose skill and grace imbues the broad range of the stories that we tell there is a father who gave us a story to help us understand our place in this world a story that points back to him his story is in many ways the only story that we know when we use that realization as a foundation for interpreting and generating narrative it changes everything including ourselves
