there s nothing like holding a pulp magazine smelling that wonderful smell of the decaying acidic paper seeing the garish brightly colored cover looking for the names that became legends since 1978 i always wanted to create edit design and publish my own pulp speculative fiction science fiction fantasy horror weird cyberpunk etc magazine i've tried many times i know it's a ridiculous pursuit especially since magazines themselves virtually are extinct as of 2018 reading the non-fiction in the pulps is a glimpse into how scientists and writers thought the future would happen the way the future was this is an attempt to feel a little of that it may or may not be a one off depending upon how many writers i can get to contribute at least one issue the one you hold in your hands of phenomenal stories does exist and that's one more pulp magazine than existed before perhaps one day you can read this and think hmm that's the way the future was
