this book introduces the concepts surrounding media relations and explains current media and communications practices from both theoretical and practical perspectives midwest

this book investigates how individual politicians and political parties strategically make use of the media to reach their political goals looking beyond a purely americentric viewpoint the chapters present data from more than ten western democracies to argue that the media are both a source of information and an arena for political communication this double functional role of the media is examined from both a theoretical and an empirical perspective including chapters dealing with different aspects of politics from campaigning to law making and within different political contexts the role of the news media is discussed from the perspective of the political actor focusing on both the opportunities and the constraints the news media provide resulting in a multidisciplinary text that will appeal to students and scholars of both communication and political science a no holds barred account of what it was really like to cover some of the most dangerous and extraordinary moments in recent history if being a war correspondent can be addictive this book might just leave you hooked from brushes with landmines to ukrainian hotdogs lisette s celebrated storytelling vividly brings to life the powerful stories behind her reports mike mcroberts i woke up every day expecting to fall asleep in a different country a blur of breaking news airports body armour border crossings and bomb shelters and wads of foreign cash we were charging on adrenaline and there was no place we wouldn t have gone okay except russia but only because the president s not my biggest fan i didn t get paid danger money i would have done it all for free a world away from the waikato farm she grew up on lisette reymer suddenly found herself reporting from one of the most dangerous places on earth and she kept going back driven by a desire to tell people s stories wherever they are the right stories not the easy ones lisette s time as europe correspondent coincided with some of the biggest global headlines in decades from inside ukraine to the queen s death the war between israel and gaza donald trump s indictment the king s coronation the region s deadliest natural disaster in a century the tokyo olympics the hunger crisis in ethiopia and a revolving door of uk prime ministers she has seen and done more in three years than many journalists do in a lifetime this is a funny brutally honest account of what it was really like to cover some of the most perilous and extraordinary moments in recent history take your seat it s in the front row
