pray pray be composed cried elinor and do not betray what you feel to every body present perhaps he has not observed you yet for elinor dashwood sensible and sensitive and her romantic impetuous younger sister marianne the prospect of marrying the men they love appears remote in a world ruled by money and self interest the dashwood sisters have neither fortune nor connections concerned for others and for social proprieties elinor is ill equipped to compete with self centred fortune hunters like lucy steele whilst marianne s unswerving belief in the truth of her own feelings makes her more dangerously susceptible to the designs of unscrupulous men through her heroines parallel experiences of love loss and hope jane austen offers a powerful analysis of the ways in which women s lives were shaped by the claustrophobic society in which they had to survive this book presents a new step farther into the twenty first century for the first time truly combining a comprehensive global data analysis with social policy theory development the theory of global ideal typical welfare regimes also known as the ten worlds of welfare regime theory as set forth earlier by christian aspalter is now in this book tested empirically using a quantitative global data analysis for the first time the strong and rich results fully vindicated the ten worlds theory all in all about 150 countries are included in this test measuring numerous variables on two main dimensions i e povertization and inequality the innovative approach of using a new indicator aspalter s standardized relative performance index is applied which facilitated the exact measurements of distances between relative performances of each variable each dimension each country and each ideal typical welfare regime in relation to one another respectively in addition one explanative and one normative meta study is added to the book to point to ways to understand and deal with the global culprit of inequality and hence poverty on the backdrop of decades of comparative theoretical and empirical research we now for the first time have a truly global analysis of welfare regimes peter abrahamson department of sociology university of copenhagen a romance of two worlds starts with a young heroine in first person telling her story of a debilitating illness that includes depression and thoughts of suicide her doctor is unable to help her and sends her off on a holiday where she meets a mystical character by the name of raffello cellini a famous italian artist cellini offers her a strange potion which immediately puts her into a tranquil slumber in which she experiences divine visions upon wakening she craves more later she meets her unnamed guardian angel who whisks her through infinite solar systems faster than a shooting star while human spirits fly by like gossamer silk he shares the truth of religion and the secret of human destiny but still she longs for more she comes to understand god as pure light and pure love but it is not enough that she should see and hear these things from the touch of an angel she wants to master this ability on her own and seeks a oneness with god through a series of meditative disciplines while locked away in a monastery wikipedia island genres genre islands moves the debate about literature and place onto new ground by exploring the island settings of bestsellers through a focus on four key genres crime fiction thrillers popular romance fiction and fantasy fiction crane and fletcher show that genre is fundamental to both the textual representation of real and imagined islands and to actual knowledges and experiences of islands the book offers broad comparative readings of the significance of islandness in each of the four genres as well as detailed case studies of major authors and texts these include chapters on agatha christie s islands the role of the island in bondspace the romantic islophilia of nora roberts s three sisters island series and the archipelagic geography of ursula le guin s earthsea crane and fletcher s book will appeal to specialists in literary studies and cultural geography as well as in island studies h g wells s hugely influential book tracks the exploits of a writer who struggles to survive an alien invasion of victorian england after seeing the monstrous martians firsthand the narrator attempts to evade their destructive mechanized vehicles and must stay on the run to avoid detection as he meets other desperate humans he becomes increasingly pessimistic about any chance of survival the novel stands as a major milestone in science fiction literature inspiring legions of subsequent writers and an endless array of hostile alien scenarios
