borrowing from the ancient rabbinic use of midrash as a means of opening scripture to students james lowry has chosen six texts from among those in which he believes mark deliberately left silences the author is convinced mark hoped his readers would be encouraged to raise a variety of possibilities as to what the evangelist left unsaid beginning with mark choosing not to name the temptations of jesus mark 1 12 13 and concluding with mark choosing to conclude his narrative with the women leaving the tomb of jesus in stunned silence mark 16 8 lowry spins short stories that suggest several alternative ideas as to how the biblical narrative might have played in half of the tales lowry enters the text and adds fictitious material to mark's narrative in the other half his stories are set in the small textile town of great falls south carolina where the author grew up in the 1950s the hope is these stories will encourage readers of mark and groups of his readers to raise other possibilities with just the right flourish of his pen author james street takes his readers for a walk in the footsteps of the men and women who populated the small towns and piney woods of his beloved home state mississippi street turns his singular experiences into moving and thought provoking universal truths seeing beyond tarnished exteriors to the treasures within the enduring legacy of selflessness the making of champions and the capacity of all no matter what age no matter how humble to find and lose love each story is introduced by a note from the author gems of thought and background information that further enhance the timeless contents of this collection these short stories were originally published in such magazines as saturday evening post good housekeeping and the american magazine this collection includes the original short stories the biscuit eater and weep no more my lady which were later expanded into two of mr street's most famous and well loved books included the golden key in full glory reflected the old gordon place weep no more my lady please come home my lady buck and fo bits the crusaders pud n and tayme they know how the road to gettysburg all out with sherman set the wild echoes flying the biscuit eater the house
