buchmann analyses the work of uk german danish and swedish embassies in the usa and china on climate change in the late 2000s and early 2010s she relates which coalitions and narratives embassies sought to develop to convince china and the united states that a more progressive climate policy was possible to achieve gains supporting an agreement under the unfccc this book shows that a key interpretation of climate diplomacy was selling trade europe selling technology solutions to solve climate change in this narrative europe has already done what needs to be done and outsourcing of production to china e g is ignored in the usa embassies entered coalitions with states faith groups and the military arguing that a more progressive climate policy was mandated by either god or security concerns state politicians including democrats often actually didn t implement any climate policies any gains were reversed through climate denial lobbying funded by corporations embassies did not address this
