this book is about how to know god s will through the scriptures and wisdom instead of by supposedly hearing god s voice all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 this booklet is included in and comprises several sections in my book paul s decision making in acts anti charismatic pro jewish commentary on acts in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god s inner voice to make decisions maybe it would help if we had more scholarly journal articles on the topic grudem i categorized the articles published in three refereed evangelical journals for the last five years before 2000 westminster theological journal trinity journal and the journal of the evangelical theological society not counting book reviews there were 257 scholarly articles on all topics but regarding god s guidance in our daily lives zero articles yet some understanding of god s guidance affects every christian every day of his or her life either garry friesen is right on that topic or he s wrong we should expect to see many more scholars contributing articles and books supporting and developing their viewpoints christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions i would love to read an exposition of the book of acts that showed paul the other apostles and their co workers making most of their decisions by listening for inward impressions but it would require reading that doctrine into the text rather than expositing it out of the text friesen in order to arrive at the conclusion of the traditional approach to decision making it is necessary to water down the biblical examples and spice up the biblical teaching examples like in acts are watered down to be less miraculous than they really are so we can think we re doing them too biblical teaching like in the epistles must be spiced up to be more specific than it really is for example a promise to israel to guide you continually is 58 11 doesn't actually say anything about christians being guided by inward impressions paul made most of his decisions by the word and wisdom not by inward impressions and only rarely by direct revelation even though he was the apostle on the cutting edge of jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles most of paul's decisions in acts can be explained 17 principles he followed all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 this booklet is included in and comprises one section in my book paul's decision making in acts anti charismatic pro jewish the history of the charismatic movement christian mysticism and the let go let god doctrine is the history of both misinterpreting the bible and also of seeking something more than the bible it's about wanting to get something quick and exciting after justification and before glorification instead of just diligently laboring using the new mind to serve and battle rom 7 6 now we serve in newness of spirit rom 8 3 9 they that are after the flesh all the unsaved do mind think about and love the things of the flesh but they that are after the spirit all who have been justified think about and love the things of the spirit the word for to be carnally minded is death but to be spiritually minded is life and peace because the carnal mind is hatred against god so then they that are in the flesh all the unsaved can't please god but you all who have been justified are not in the flesh but in the spirit since the spirit of god dwells in you now if any man doesn't have the spirit of messiah only the unsaved he is none of his biblically there's no shortcut to sanctification after we're justified we learn and labor using the new mind and the next event is glorification 1 ths 1 9 you turned to god from idols past spiritual justification event to serve the living and true god present sanctification process and to wait for his son from heaven future physical glorification event the greatest hindrance to more complete practical sanctification is the false doctrine of let go and let god as taught by john wesley sinless perfectionism phoebe palmer altar theology william boardman higher life hannah whitall smith secret of a happy christian life the keswick convention resting faith charles trumbull victorious life and many others as watchman nee 1903 1972 said from now on i will not do anything i will not manage anything and i will not be concerned about anything from now on i will let go brothers and sisters this is surrendering this is letting go but jesus said mt 9 38 pray the lord will send forth laborers into his harvest after ten years of online education i had earned an ma and a ph d though incredibly grateful for this time of learning and growing there was still something amiss once it was all finished it wasn't easy to figure out why i felt this way but it finally came to me ultimately i cannot point to one meaningful long term friendship that was formed with either a peer or professor the accessible convenient and affordable pathways of online educational delivery systems paved the way for me to achieve my learning goals and for that i am thankful yet the feeling of being robbed of the human element and the benefit of gaining another s perspective remained online education is here to stay no one is arguing that fact even now new technological advancements continue to emerge offering innovative approaches to helping people to continue learning i celebrate this and encourage it but not at the expense of the human element this book puts forward research based findings that offer evidence that students professors and schools are far more likely to achieve their goals when solid friendships exist a solidly christian and biblical perspective undergirds and supports the results of this one and a half year doctoral research project that is the basis for this book questions that are considered through these pages include 1 why do relationships matter in online education 2 who is responsible for creating relational connections in online education 3 where and when can social opportunities happen in online education 4 is there a biblical precedent for learning in relational communities 5 are there dangers to learning in isolation by using inspirational true stories biblical examples and data gleaned from the research arguments are made that all in online education win if genuine friendships exist and we enjoy the support of a christian community in january of 1848 james marshall discovered gold at sutter s mill in the foothills of the sierra nevada for a year afterward news of this discovery spread outward from california and started a mass migration to the gold fields thousands of people from the east coast aspiring to start new lives in california financed their journey west on the assumption that they would be able to find wealth some were successful many were not but they all permanently changed the face of the american west in this text mark eifler examines the experiences of the miners demonstrates how the gold rush affected the united states and traces the development of california and the american west in the second half of the nineteenth century this migration dramatically shifted transportation systems in the us led to a more powerful federal role in the west and brought about mining regulation that lasted well into the twentieth century primary sources from the era and web materials help readers comprehend what it was like for these nineteenth century americans who gambled everything on the pursuit of gold this book is a commentary on the new testament book of acts that is primarily about the apostle paul and his mission to the aegean all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com or bible.ag freely you have received freely give mt 10:8 in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god's inner voice to make decisions christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions almost all paul's decisions in acts can be explained by 17 logical principles he followed paul was jesus surrogate to complete jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles of the aegean sea and to the jews of the diaspora isaiah 49:1-6 listen o islands to me and hearken you jewish people from far the lord has called me from the womb he said it is a light thing that you would be my servant to restore the preserved of israel i will also give you for a light to the gentiles so that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth the first part of the book of acts asks can even gentiles be saved but the last part focuses on luke's real message the congregation should continue to look equally jewish and gentile even though gentiles become far more numerous in the congregation this is god's highest purpose gathering two into the one body of messiah according to ephesians all paul's epistles were written by the end of acts 28 there's no need for a speculated release and second roman imprisonment this book also provides an accounting of the movements of paul's coworkers and a history of charismaticism christian mysticism and the false doctrine of let go and let god
