the ultimate challenge laying down rights is a concept foreign to our culture indeed foreign to the very nature of humankind we live in a world in which the protection and exaltation of individual rights has become an obsession as christians we believe that personal rights do hold great value therefore we can perform no greater act of faith and worship than to consciously lay down these rights at the feet of the one who has gone before us jesus himself drawing from his own life and those of Christians around the world Loren Cunningham details proven steps to a transformed life of freedom, joy, and intimate fellowship with God. Making Jesus Lord demonstrates the dynamic power available to every person willing to embark on this faith adventure.

C. Norman Kraus challenges some of the unwarranted claims of orthodoxy from a consistent and rigorous biblical position. One of his most significant contributions is the development of the idea that shame and alienation rather than guilt control our interpretation of God's vicarious action on our behalf. Kraus provides a more comprehensive biblical vision of salvation than is typical of traditional Western theologies and delineates a discipleship which is authentic without being legalistic. A companion volume to God Our Savior.
