the college of europe in bruges has a long standing tradition in the organization of important conferences on key questions of the development of european integration the results of the conference on europe and global economic interdependence introduce a new collection called the bruges conferences the completion of the european internal market the transition to an economic and monetary union the conclusion of new ec efta agreements the search for a new political and economic order in central and eastern europe and the negotiations of the uruguay round are the main issues on the political agenda in the early 1990s the european community faces major challenges in an environment which is undergoing rapid transformation this is certainly true in the fields of trade finance and money in which europe s interests and responsibilities as a regional and global economic power will need to be reconciled this will require some difficult and occasionally painful decisions book jacket recent proposals for enlarging the european community to include the efta countries raise the question of whether the new members should participate in a european monetary union in part the issue hinges on the incidence of aggregate supply and demand disturbances we use data on prices and output and a var decomposition to analyze this issue empirically grouping economies according to the magnitude of the disturbances their cross country correlation and speeds of response this leads us to distinguish an ec core made up of germany and its immediate neighbors and an ec periphery made up of the uk and the southern european members of the community austria sweden and switzerland behave more similarly to the ec core than do norway finland and iceland this suggests that the case for emu participation is stronger for austria sweden and switzerland than for the other efta countries
