cadence explores the many ways in which the component parts of a classical composition achieve a sense of ending the book examines cadential practice in a wide variety of musical styles in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries including works by well known composers such as bach mozart beethoven schubert chopin and brahms nicholas medtner 1880 1951 has always been a neglected figure in the history of russian music and yet his friend rachmaninoff considered him the greatest of contemporary composers he wrote three fine piano concertos more than one hundred solo piano compositions including a cycle of fourteen sonatas fully worthy to be set alongside those of scriabin and prokofiev and many beautiful songs he was also a great pianist leaving russia after the bolshevik revolution medtner lived for a time in germany and france before finally settling in london where he passed the final sixteen years of his life the present work is the first to tell the full story of his eventful life and to consider in turn each of his compositions the author has drawn on medtner s own correspondence and writings and collected the reminiscences of those who knew him personally to build a comprehensive picture of a great if still largely unrecognised musician
