These jazz arrangements of well-known hymns were written for Andrew Earls and choirs of St Martin in the Fields London for various services and BBC broadcasts from that church. The setting of 'Come Down O Love Divine' supplies some new harmonic moves to Vaughan Williams' lovely tune 'Down Ampney' gradually adding vocal harmony through the verses with a short descant section in the final verse. The compound time arrangement of 'God is Love' which can also be sung to the supplied words of Charles Wesley's hymn 'Love Divine' again adds more of Todd's iconic jazz harmonies and textures in the vocal parts with each successive verse. The setting of 'Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence' is structured to gradually build layers over the moody piano chords and the pedal harmony. At the end the music builds to a large climax for the text 'Lord Most High'. The hymns can be performed using the supplied piano part or using the chord symbols above double bass may also be used in addition to piano again following the supplied chord symbols and parts for optional jazz ensemble are available. Performers of these hymns should feel free to include the congregation or audience in imaginative ways.

'Hymns for a Jazzy Sunday Morning' offers a fresh approach to 10 classic hymns. The arrangements were written especially for church pianists looking for a way to combine jazz rhythms and harmonies with traditional church melodies. The variety of jazz styles represented in this collection provides something for every occasion from Sunday services to recitals and special events. Advanced.

the arrangements in this collection were written to contribute meaningful new music to the church service the spirit of original music is retained while incorporating jazz harmonies and written out improvised passages these pieces range from the reflective to the celebratory and it is hoped that you will enjoy playing them for your own pleasure and to share with others titles abide with me give me jesus i ve got peace like a river jesus loves me this i know leaning on the everlasting arms oh happy day simple gifts sweet hour of prayer swing low sweet chariot wade in the water when the saints go marching in
