this text is the first to put ethical issues in a cultural and historical context based on the premise that ethical problems arise from myriad of cultural forces the first section focuses on ethics in postmodern america and how to effectively make decisions in a contemporary society next students learn about ethical philosophers from plato to foucault and their beliefs the individual philosophical messages within each biographical sketch can be fully realized when applied to the included media case studies the final part of the text asks students to apply these philosophers' teachings to ethical issues in areas such as journalism, public relations, and the music industry. Some case studies are entirely new, others updated, and include Nike's labor practices, September 11, and the news, the South Park cartoon, the NFL, and the advertising of prescription medicine.

Unleashes Marx, Simmel, Benjamin, and Heidegger on a range of Victorian texts. This book also shows us that what the Germans bring to our understanding of the nineteenth century is a terrible awareness of the darkest moments of the twentieth century.

Broadly viewing the global economy as a political competition that produces winners and losers, International Political Economy holistically and accessibly introduces the field of IPE to readers with limited background in political theory, history, and economics. This book surveys major interests and institutions and examines how state and non-state actors pursue wealth and power, emphasizing fundamental economic concepts as well as the interplay between domestic and international politics. International Political Economy not only explains how the global economy works; it also encourages readers to think critically about how economic policy is made in the context of globalization.

Racial Thinking in the United States is a comprehensive reassessment of the ideas that Americans have had about race. This useful book draws on the skills and perspectives of nine scholars from the fields of history, sociology, theology, American studies, and ethnic studies. In thirteen carefully crafted essays, they tell the history of the American system of racial domination and of twentieth-century challenges to that racial hierarchy, from monoracial movements to the multiracial movement. This collection begins with an introduction to how Americans have thought about race, ethnicity, and colonialism. The first section of the book describes the founding of racial thinking in the United States along the racial binary of black and white and compares that system to the quite different system that developed in jamaica section two describes anomalies in the racial binary such as the experiences of people of mixed race and of states such as texas california and hawaii where large groups of non black and white racial groups co exist part three analyzes five monoracial challenges to racial hierarchy the civil rights and black power movements the chicana o movement the asian ame
