it s amazing to think that the first smile jesus ever gave was in response to mary s smile it must have been an extraordinary moment her son was smiling at her and it was god smiling at her too this book looks at mary this extraordinary woman who is the cause of our joy because she brought us the greatest joy of all jesus she was full of joy because she was full of gratitude gladly acknowledging the fullness of grace that god had given her her deep joy overflowed when she visited her cousin elizabeth my soul magnifies the lord and my spirit exults in god my saviour but this magnificat song wasn't just a once off song of praise the reason it came to mary's lips so easily was because it was her usual way of praying she constantly thanked god for the gifts he had given her whatever the circumstances mary had the deep inner conviction that all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well as julian of norwich was later to express it many of us seek joy outside of ourselves in food and drink or in riches and reputations but mary found an inner joy that came from encountering god a joy that was immeasurably greater than any material joy and by giving mary a place in our hearts we can find true joy in god as well kenneth howell believes that one of the greatest obstacles to christian unity has been mary the mother of jesus no woman in history has been so honored in some human hearts while being so ignored by others for that reason no genuine unity can exist among christians which ignores the central role played by jesus mother in the history of salvation mary of nazareth will lead you through the relevant scriptures about mary and will help you understand how intimately bound to one another jesus and mary are it will explain how troubling catholic doctrines of mary are rooted in biblical testimony this scriptural meditation will touch your mind and heart as you enter into the beautiful life by which mary gave the world its redeemer most of all you will discover how mary is a key instrument in bringing about that unity for which jesus her son prayed jenny robertson explores the ministry of mary within its biblical context as a servant who is chosen and who responds to god's challenge as a prophet whose words bridge the old testament and the new as a woman of faith who at one point fails to recognize the implications of her son's life and teachings but who follows him to the foot of the cross and beyond into the new spirit filled life of the church the book suggests that mary is an important role model for many aspects of faith and discipleship that a proper honouring of her not to be confused with praying to her brings us closer to capturing the essence of her song which radiantly affirms god and stresses the divine bias towards the poor this is the first archaeological and historical biography of the most fascinating and revered woman in history the mother of christ millions of faithful around the world invoke her as their queen protectress and advocate but who was this extraordinary woman chosen by god to give birth to the savior michael hesemann searched for her traces in italy israel turkey and egypt based on biblical traditions legends and archaeological discoveries he reconstructs the life of mary of nazareth the mother of the messiah from the most ancient icon of christianity to the holy house in loreto from the grotto of nazareth to the refuge of the holy family in egypt from mary s residence in ephesus turkey to mount zion and her empty tomb in jerusalem this is a journey of discovery full of surprising insights that deepen our faith in the great mystery of the mother of god
