living religions now in its eighth edition is a highly readable and stimulating survey of the world's major religious traditions. It provides a clear and straightforward account of the development, doctrines and practices of the major faiths with an emphasis on the personal consciousness of believers and their own accounts of its relevance in contemporary life. The book also describes new and emerging religious movements and explores the attitudes of various faiths towards issues such as the role of women, the environment and society, as well as covering the disturbing rise in violence perpetrated in the name of religion. Highly illustrated with photographs, maps and timelines, this is the leading overview of the modern religious world.

This anthology provides each of the major world religions with an opportunity to explain itself in its own terms, creating a sensitive and accurate picture of its teachings and beliefs. It allows readers to gain an inside understanding of origins, founders and practices and presents the religions as living faiths. Selected extracts relate religion to such current issues as gender, environment and politics. Chapters explore indigenous sacred ways, Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, Judaism, Christianity and more. For individuals desiring to learn more about the major world religions and their impact around the world today.

Living Religions presents a highly readable and stimulating survey of the modern religious world, though an emphasis on the personal consciousness of believers and their own accounts of their religion and relevance in contemporary life. Religion is not a museum piece; religion is a vibrant force in the lives of many people around the world and many religions are presently experiencing a renaissance. Mary Pat Fisher's preface to Living Religions, along with a team of specialist consultants in each faith and drawing on a wealth of scholarly research and firsthand source material, Mary Pat Fisher provides a fresh and challenging insight into the historical development and teachings of traditional faiths, indigenous religions and new religious movements.
