new updated content reflects the main text's more complete incorporation of the move toward the paperless dental office and electronic health records (EHRs) specifically in areas such as scheduling, filing, bookkeeping, electronic record regulations, and insurance processing. HIPAA updates are also incorporated throughout. New updated questions, activities, and puzzles reflect the changes in content and further the focus on critical thinking and application. The new semester project includes a series of relevant exercises that add up to a capstone project in which you will create office procedures and management for your own fictitious dental practice. New original practice exercises developed by the text author work in conjunction with the Dentrix Learning Edition software to help you experience what it's like to work with dental practice management software. New appendix forms supplement the cases and exercises provided in various workbook chapters.

Index is composed of 3 sections: basic classifications, subject current VA directives, and rescinded VA directives.

This work is a multidisciplinary analysis of the issue of insider dealing from the perspective of the applicability of criminal law to regulate it. First, it examines the nature of its prohibition in the European Union and in the United States of America. The text includes a more extensive overview of prohibition in four member states of the European Union: France, the United Kingdom, Luxembourg, and Poland. Then, it summarises the arguments presented by ethicists and economists in favour of and against insider dealing. Further, it analyses the foundations of criminal law and justifications that are given for its application. On the basis of this analysis, it presents a new two-step theory of criminalisation. The first step is based on a liberal theory of wrongfulness that makes reference to protection of the basic human rights. The second step relies on classical but often forgotten principles of criminal law. Finally, it examines possible alternatives to criminal rules.
