this introduction to the writing and preaching of the greatest medieval european mystic contains selections from his sermons treatises and sayings as well as table talk the records of his informal advice to his spiritual children it is in great simplicity that great beauty is revealed and only then may we discover where god truly hides in this moving exploration of the path to understanding god s presence liam lawton considers how we bring spiritual awakening and consolation into our lives in every circumstance taking inspiration from the gentle age old wisdom of the book of ecclesiastes there is a time for everything and a season for everything under the sun he begins his journey of reflection and contemplation over its course liam shares remarkable stories of god s revelation in ordinary human life and of the people and events that have touched him during his years of ministry along with fascinating perspectives on his own spiritual awakening these pages reveal a god who does not intrude upon human living but rather is available to enter into the very depth of it and become present to those who wish for eyes to see and ears to hear here are stories of pain and beauty challenge and consolation but above all inspiration god hides is a critique of contemporary christian faith it argues that faith should not be understood as the result of spiritual seeking but rather as rooted in moral living starting with the challenge of bonhoeffer s religionless christianity it argues for a common morality and then shows how that morality leads to christian faith the thesis is that in order for us to serve our neighbor whom we see and not seek god whom we cannot see god hides drawing upon the rich tradition of religious thought from luther kant kierkegaard and bonhoeffer this book offers a way past the religious battles in the current culture war wisnefske points to the emptiness of the christian promise of salvation in a time when virtually no one believes there is a hell to be saved from instead he shows that it makes sense today in view of our nuclear arsenals and environmental crisis to claim that life is threatened by death our present circumstances provide new understanding into the biblical view that primeval chaos threatens creation a distinctive feature of the book is that it develops the traditional understanding that sin and death are powers threatening creation christian faith accordingly is best understood as the living hope that creation will be saved from the violence and destruction that threaten to return it to chaos
