ideas for britain

previously published as an ebook is a compilation of some of these blog posts from 2009 2015 from theresa may's ignorance of the most basic law of advertising to a call for the role of government to be redefined in a changing world from the simple belief that every child has a talent at something to innovative proposals for the education system from the realities of living as a disabled person to a radical new future for the nhs including a call to separate care from cure and the launch of a new national care service from the failure of immigration policy to the underlying tensions of an increasingly divided society since evidenced by the 2016 eu referendum ideas for britain takes an adman's innate understanding of human behaviour and challenges the political classes to seek more creative solutions to the core issues facing britain today sometimes it feels like life's falling apart at the seams sometimes you're completely worn out by stresses that never seem to end for every woman who has been disappointed who has watched a dream die whose life isn't what she imagined it would be bestselling author holley gerth has a heartfelt message of hope you really are going to be okay and it is possible to live with joy resilience and strength in both the good times and the bad in fact she says that's what god desires for us with her trademark positive encouragement and probing questions for self reflection holley encourages women to spend less of their lives regretting and more of their lives truly living she shows them how to guard their hearts against despair and look to the future with confidence remembering that they are part of a greater plan and nothing can stop god's purposes for them why should christians care about what atheists believe it is easy to discover what atheists have to say about christianity and christians pick up a book by any modern atheist writer read a few random pages and the reader will have a sampling of the criticisms atheists have regarding religion and people of faith a natural first response is the desire to set the record straight a person responding this way will quickly find themselves going in circles this is one point christians need to accept and understand from the christian's perspective it serves no useful purpose when christians engage atheists in an attempt to set the record straight atheism is a worldview or a way of seeing the world just as the christian sees their christian faith as reasonable and rational the atheist has the same view of what they believe to be true atheists vary in their definition of what it means to be an atheist there are however common themes found in the beliefs of people identifying themselves as atheist it is common for example to find people identifying themselves as atheists to believe the natural world is all there is this of course excludes the supernatural and since god operates outside of nature god is supernatural and is therefore eliminated in the thinking of atheism how should the christian respond when atheists challenge christian beliefs how can the christian respond effectively unless the christian understands what atheists believe how can the christian respond unless the christian understands why atheists believe as they do the apostle paul tells christians to be ambassadors ambassadors need to understand the world in which they serve this is why christians should care about what atheists believe
