cities even private individuals may from time to time hire soldiers either to supplement their indigenous forces or to conduct particular ventures perhaps of reprisal perhaps even of acquisition on gor there are numerous mercenary companies some larger some smaller whose services may be purchased or bid upon for given periods of time the allegiance of these companies is to their pay and their captains the forces of cos and tyros powerful maritime ubarates and their allies have now beached upon the mainland and are utilizing the city of torcodino as a repository for supplies preparatory to marching on a nigh undefended and unprepared ar should ar fall the disinterested tolerances and neutralities and even the balance of power long sustained between ar and the great maritime ubarates things which made possible the existence of the independent companies will vanish a development threatening the very existence of the independent companies in a surprise attack a mercenary captain dietrich of tarnburg seizes torcodino intending to forestall the imminent march against ar until she has time to arm and defend herself cabot en route to ar has inadvertently been trapped in torcodino when it was seized by dietrich he agrees to carry secret and urgent letters for dietrich now besieged in torcodino to the administration of ar ar must act but when cabot arrives in ar it is a city riven by doubt and dissension and treason to whom shall the letters be delivered and whom can he trust this is the third installment of john norman s popular and controversial gor series tarl cabot is the intrepid tarnsman of the planet gor a harsh society with a rigid caste system that personifies the most brutal form of social darwinism in this volume tarl must search for the truth behind the disappearance of his beautiful wife talena have the ruthless priest kings destroyed her tarl vows to find the answer for himself journeying to the mountain stronghold of the kings knowing full well that no one who has dared approach the priest kings has ever returned alive taken as a possession judy thornton an earth resident is found meandering in the wilderness of the earthlike planet of gor in keeping with the uncivilized culture of the goreans she is trained and used as a slave what her masters don t know is that judy is more than just a beautiful chattel she has the power to obliterate gor and all that is related to it determined to seize control of her priest kings and kur monster enter combat neglecting the fact that the fate of gor rests in the hands of the ethereal judy the games of gor are diverse as are their players there are the games of planetary politics in which worlds are contested and those of cities and ubarates of ponderous cavalries and fleets of lateen rigged ships and smaller games bloody games played on a square of sand in which the counters and pieces are edged weapons and too there is kaissa common on gor played with pieces of wood on a board of a hundred squares one might think little would depend on the outcomes of such a benign recreation but one could be wrong the major land power in the northern latitudes of known gor has long been the imperium of mighty ar against her hegemonies on the continent plans by her major enemies the maritime ubarates of cos and tyros have been carefully drawn projectively to involve attack from without and subversion from within cabot once of earth is drawn into these intrigues a foiled plot laid against his life leads him to the port city of brundisium where he obtains not only satisfaction but keys to enciphered documents germane to the machinations of cos and tyros these should be delivered to ar but the armada of the maritime ubarates is already entering the collaborating port of brundisium john norman takes you on a journey to world s end a set of once unknown islands far west of the continental mainland lying across vast turbulent thassa these mysterious islands were reached for the first time during the historic voyage of the ship of tersites now this remote locale has been chosen by two warring technologically advanced species the bestial imperialistic predatory kurii and the retiring secretive priest kings the gods of gor on this all too real gaming board a roll of the dice will determine the fortunes and fate of gor and perhaps that of earth few realize the momentous nature of the conflict seeing in it no more than a local war for territory and power those who grasp the dimensions of the game realize that the stakes are nothing less than the world itself rediscover this brilliantly imagined world where men are masters and women live to serve their every desire the maritime ubarate of cos with her allies is mounting an attack on ar on two fronts from the south with a major invasion force and in the north with an expeditionary force besieging ar s station ar s base of power in the vast arable basin of gor s mightiest river the vosk dietrich of tarnburg a mercenary has seized torcodino in the south with its stores of military supplies to temporarily halt the march of cos on ar to buy ar time to organize for her defense cabot has delivered letters from dietrich to the regent of ar gniesus lelius apprising him of the city s danger and the situation at torcodino and he has in turn been entrusted with letters from the regent to be delivered to the besieged ar s station in virtue of treason in ar her main forces have been drawn away from the city and are now are wintering at holmesk thus ar is substantially defenseless and ar s station is abandoned at ar s station cabot betrayed by the very missives he conveyed is arrested as a spy in the destruction wrought in ar s station by siege engines cabot escapes his imprisonment shall he then flee ar s station making his way to freedom through its miseries and desolations its ruins and flames or shall he remain to defend as he can to the death if need be her weakened betrayed starving defenders those who had been his very captors
