sfgwa grand master cherryh returns to the hugo award winning alliance union universe with a thrilling entry in her far reaching sci fi saga for years the stations of the hinder stars those old stations closest to sol have lagged behind the great megastations of the beyond like pell and cyteen but new opportunities and fears arise when alpha station receives news of an incoming ship with no identification the denizens of alpha wait anxiously for news about the outsiders each with their own suspicions about the ship and its origins. Ross and Fallon, crew members of the Galway, believe the unidentified ship belongs to Pell and has come to investigate another massive ship docked at Alpha. The Rights of Man, though Rights is under the command of the Earth Company, it is not quite perfected and its true purpose is shrouded in mystery. James Robert Neihart, captain of Finité, sends a huge faster-than-light ship flown by one of the Merchant families. He has heard whispers of the Rights of Man and wonders at its design and purpose, especially as Sol struggles to rival the progress of the farther stars now docked at Alpha. He must convince the crews that there is more to the Rights of Man than meets the eye because the reasons behind the creation of the Rights of Man and its true plans could change everything, not just for Sol but for the Hinder Stars and the beyond itself.

Alien Nation explores the ways the metaphor of the alien little green man has been used to process the reality of the alien, illegal, or otherwise. If the cinema of the 1950s and 60s sublimated the fear of atomic catastrophe or communist attack into interplanetary drama, the more recent work collected here uses elements of that retro sci-fi world as powerful metaphors for our deep-seated fears of the other, the foreigner, the increasingly frequently decried invasion of immigrants, or just the presence of people of different skin colors and beliefs. Among the 12 international contemporary artists showcased are Laylah Ali, Kori Newkirk, and Yinka Shonibare. They and their compatriots explore themes of otherness and difference in film, sculpture, painting, photography, and installation. Their interplanetary visitors, which might be built from Christmas ornaments like Marepe's untitled creature or sewn from African cloth like Shonibare's dysfunctional family, are illustrated alongside film stills and posters from the 1950s and 60s, a glossary of alien names from those films, several thoughtful essays, and interviews with the participating artists. A timely, ambitious, and thought-provoking exploration of the complex relationship between fiction, race, and contemporary art.

The MRI race, indestructible until having finally met their match in a war against a new and powerful enemy, are in danger of extinction, leaving three individuals: a warrior, priestess, and human being, to recapture their domination.

The 2nd novel of the Hinder Stars series returns to an intergalactic corporate conflict set in the Hugo Award-winning Alliance Union Universe. With deft prose and complex characters, Alliance Unbound is thought-provoking science fiction that shrewdly examines the technological and sociopolitical challenges of humanity's journey to the stars. When Cyteen opened up faster-than-light travel, it gave the technology for free to any ship that could reach it, and with that technology, it provided a map of jump points, points of mass enabling starships to navigate hyperspace safely. The map of jump points, however, stopped with the route to Alpha, thus excluding Sol and Earth.

and the earth company whose gateway to the stars was alpha cyteen knew exactly what it was doing with its gift sol and the ec could still reach alpha with sub light pusher ships as it always had but sol and the earth company no longer had any authority in the beyond but sol intends to take back control of its star stations and stop cyteen s unbridled expansion however it can to do that they are willing to starve alpha and concentrate their efforts on a huge ftler capable of carrying military force
