no one was excluded from Jesus' table and eating with him was a sign of the kingdom of heaven and an invitation to meet god and to be transformed we recognise that we do not always offer such generous welcome or listen to the voices on the margins as the church strives to be god's people in a world changed by a global pandemic we invite prayers of thanksgiving and intercession penitence and resolve that with god's help we may recognise and repent of our exclusivity and that then we may be reconciling open to all and ready to listen to all voices equally together we pray to become a more inclusive and diverse church creating communities of greater respect and compassion this volume in the united methodist studies series challenges united methodists to engage in life transforming practices the author explains a theme and underscores major emphases within the united methodist denomination this adult study is divided into four sections with suggestions for group discussion and can be completed in 4 to 8 sessions no leader's guide is needed the sections are living from the heart this chapter examines the essence of prayer and devotional life for united methodists holiness of heart and life the chapter is divided into two sections to enable this examination communion heart and compassion life read and pray daily exploring these two central disciplines in christian formation and the wesleyan tradition guides readers into practical expressions of what it means to read devotionally lection divina and pray continually the life of prayer get connected the idea of connectionalism is a significant part of our tradition this chapter examines this idea from two vantage points of classic formation principles and the concrete structures wesley used in early methodism which still contain implications for today go on the cultivation of prayer and devotional life in united methodism is not about attainment but rather about journey this chapter examines the pilgrimage motif through the two lenses of the biblical doctrine of christian perfection and the practical development of that message through an action reflection model of christian formation
