the 1989 international convention on the rights of the child crc and the 1990 african charter on the rights and welfare of the child acrwc are two major international treaties protecting minors each treaty gives rise to new perspectives on children's rights and enshrine the principles of the best interests of the child and of children's ownership of rights the acrwc incorporates the crc's rights while taking into consideration the specificity of the african context striving to balance the rule of law with local customs this book seeks to illustrate the rights and duties enshrined in the acrwc as well as the responsibilities established therein regarding the protection of minors the role of the african committee of experts on the rights and welfare of the child acerwc will also be examined in particular its activity of monitoring the states parties implementation of the acrwc and its institutional powers in exercising its powers finally the book will analyse the progress made by the states parties to the treaties the focus will be both on the formal aspect of harmonizing national legal systems and the international rights and on the substantive steps required of states parties to reach the opinion of law or necessity that the acrwc's provisions should be perceived first and foremost as necessary and socially useful as well as legally binding this two volume open access book offers a theoretically and empirically grounded portrayal of the experiences of people claiming international protection in europe on the basis of their sexual orientation or gender identity sogi it shows how european asylum systems might and should treat asylum claims based on people's sogi in a fairer more humane way through a combined comparative interdisciplinary socio legal human rights feminist queer and intersectional approach this book examines not only the legal experiences of people claiming asylum on grounds of their sogi but also their social experiences outside the asylum decision making framework the authors analyse how sogi related claims are adjudicated in different european frameworks european union council of europe germany italy and uk and offer detailed recommendations to adequately address the intersectional experiences of individuals seeking asylum this unique approach ensures that the book is of interest not only to researchers in migration and refugee studies law and wider academic communities but also to policy makers and practitioners in the field of sogi asylum this book sheds light on the improvements and downfalls over time in two of the five indicators of refugee integration after the post arab spring migration refugee crisis namely education and employment within the context of the need for a common policy response in the field of migration governance it includes case studies from first line immigration countries of the mediterranean region the book also reflects on the situation in central europe scandinavia and africa and considers the perspectives of different actors including migration and integration governance stakeholders ngos governments refugees and others covering a wide geographical spectrum and a diverse spectrum of integration experiences and models it reveals collaboration between different actors and how they operated simultaneously on regional national and international levels in order to achieve the inclusion of refugees in the host communities this book will be of key interest to scholars and students of migration studies social policy public policy international relations european studies law economics and sociology

the book addresses the challenges faced by women on the two shores of the mediterranean from a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspective while in the european union s eu mediterranean countries inequality is mostly linked to the social sphere and in particular refers to labour market dynamics in the middle east and northern africa mena area the situation is more complicated as the social and private spheres are blended and cultural and religious factors have a great impact on women autonomy and opportunities beyond the family perimeter the different challenges women are facing on the two sides of the mediterranean have sometimes originated incomprehension and misperceptions western supported policies devoted to fill the gap between men and women in the mena area have overlooked countries peculiarities simply exporting models tailored for eu s member states the eu s attempts to strengthen relations with the mediterranean countries on a multilevel basis have not rescued women from marginalisation nevertheless during the 2011 awakening women played an important role in activating civil society they are still considered as a key part of the fight against terrorism and radicalisation although in some countries their condition has worsened after secular regimes have been downturned the number of migrant women has increased and not differently from men they are looking for opportunities and better conditions of life while western media tend to present them in a stereotyped way either as traumatized victim and or as caring mother there are other misleading common places which need to be better conceptualised and understood such as the alleged incompatibility between islam and women rights unfortunately women s rights are still under attack even in european countries where they are considered consolidated the chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of the journal of the balkans and near eastern studies what drives a person to pursue perfection to submit to the will of others or to follow a road already marked out that leads straight to failure it is the hidden rules that we have generated since pregnancy and that now condition our existence without us realising it the p e c c le regole nascoste della vita the hidden rules of life method explains how these rules influence our current choices and relationships through the stories of the protagonists the author leads us to understand the deeper meaning of one s actions their origin and how to change them in order to realise ourselves fully the hidden rules emerge already during gestation when we are programmed to adapt to the environment that awaits us after birth if not updated these rules can lead to a life of deprivation dependence on others and failure with no escape from ourselves the author teaches how to recognise and replace them in order to live as creators of one s own existence a journey of discovery that leads to new perspectives on ourselves others and the world
