master s thesis from the year 2017 in the subject communications movies and television grade 13 university of cologne englisches seminar language english abstract the discrepancy between patriarchy s prohibition of homosocial affection and its tendency to produce homo social institutions like all male sports teams or military is striking while the new millenium has seen several representations and filmic negotiations of this force field few films have focussed as much on exactly this combination of or conflict between the male ego attitude and camaraderie as the works written and directed by david ayer a glance at criticism of ayer s films supports this claim while many call him a macho helmer ayer is equally often recognized for his instinctive feel for male relationships their language and intimacy this thesis will review david ayer s stories screenplays and films focussing on masculine camaraderie homosocial bonding and the relationships of its characters in an attempt to get a deeper sense of the ambivalence between machismo and male male affection that seems to characterize ayer s projects the st cuthbert gospel formerly known as the stonyhurst gospel is the earliest intact european book and a landmark in the cultural history of western europe now dated to the early eighth century the manuscript contains a beautifully written copy of the gospel of john in latin and is famous for the craftsmanship and condition of its contemporary decorated leather binding found in cuthbert s coffin when it was opened in durham cathedral in 1104 the gospel was acquired for the national collection in 2012 after a major fundraising campaign this new collection of essays is the most substantial study of the book since the 1960s it includes detailed commentary on cuthbert in his historical context the codicology text script and medieval history of the manuscript the structure and decoration of the binding the other relics found in cuthbert s coffin and the post medieval ownership of the book this book significantly revises the existing scholarship on one of the british library s most recent acquisitions which is now one of its greatest treasures
