excerpt from the christian according to paul ye were at that time separate from christ alienated from the commonwealth of israel and strangers from the covenants of the promise having no hope and without god in the world eph 2 12 times have changed but have the hearts of men changed how truly do the outstanding words and phrases of this verse in which paul vividly described to the ephesians their state before they accepted christ picture the condition of those today who do not know christ what does it mean that they are apart from the company of those who live in christ s light what is the result of the fact that their manner of life has set them in opposition to the friends of christ is it a loss that they are strangers to his ways his thoughts his promises have they hope of any real good what is the effect of being without god how much real satisfaction can there be in the life that does not know him what book in the bible has most to say about hope who inspires hope how important a place does paul give to hope consult a concordance about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

paul s gospel is misunderstood paul s gospel is seen as his message perhaps an empowered message he saw it differently his gospel can be many things tradition about jesus jesus christ himself the ministry of jesus the replication of the ministry of jesus god s salvific drama the salvation experience of people a message and something that can and should be embodied or lived and the gospel does not come to people in paul s preaching he says it comes or takes place in both his message and the miraculous without the involvement and acts of god in the miraculous for paul there would have been no gospel only preaching it is not that the miraculous was simply a proof or demonstration of the gospel it was integral to it in the gospel s coming or establishment it is clear that at heart the gospel is god s salvation the presence of god himself in christ experienced in the symbiotic relationship between paul s message about god s son jesus christ and the activity of god in the miraculous not surprisingly then paul rarely talks of preaching the gospel he sees himself as gospelling

a new creation the image of god becoming the revelation of god conclusion conclusion index of greek words discussed index of key passages discussed index of subjects
