the eerie quiet and disorientating darkness of the night have long been associated with the terror of the unknown in the cold light of day it is all too easy for sceptics to dismiss apparently inexplicable events but in the dead of night when faced with the evidence of their senses and those of other perfectly rational people it is far more difficult to ignore the facts however disturbing they may be peter underwood is britain's leading ghost hunter for over thirty years in his position as president and chief investigator of the ghost club of great britain he was actively involved in undertaking night vigils and carrying out research into ghosts and paranormal activity in controlled scientific conditions in this unique volume of largely unpublished accounts of nocturnal investigations he guides son a chilling tour of the most haunted houses in great britain among others we encounter the headless blue lady and disturbing inexplicable odour of lavender of bovey house in devon the happy spirits monk of bromfield manor shropshire who chuckles with delight when noticed and the strange disembodied voices footsteps and unnatural coldness of newark park gloucestershire in nights in haunted houses peter underwood vividly records terrifying accounts of ghostly encounters in locations as diverse as a farmhouse a church a castle and a council house and builds a convincing catalogue of evidence for the existence of ghosts people say a building is haunted if they believe it holds ghosts or spirits more people in the united states believe in haunted houses than in any other paranormal phenomenon learn more in investigating haunted houses a world's greatest mysteries book what poltergeist accounts through the ages reveal about our own worldviews provides a wide array of case studies from ancient greece and rome to medieval europe to the modern world explores the relationship between poltergeists and troubled adolescence looks beneath the christian adulteration of pagan practices to reveal the hidden ancestral beliefs tied to poltergeists and haunted houses stories of poltergeists and their mischievous and sometimes violent actions knocking stone or chair throwing moving objects with invisible hands and slamming or opening doors are a constant through the ages what changes is how we interpret this activity for our pagan ancestors this phenomenon was caused by helper spirits whose manifestations revealed their unhappiness with a household the medieval christian church demonized these once helpful spirits and held exorcisms to expel them from the houses they haunted which proved effective less than half the time the age of enlightenment cast these incidents as clever hoaxes and many still believe this today but poltergeist manifestations continue to appear and often defy attempts to debunk them as pranks what then is behind this phenomenon exploring accounts of poltergeists from ancient greece and rome medieval europe and the modern world claude lecousteux finds that while our interpretations of poltergeists may change the manifestations always follow a similar course and evolution he shows how modern scientific studies of poltergeist manifestations have found a strong tie between these visitations and the presence of a troubled adolescent in the house looking beneath the christian adulteration of pagan practices to reveal the hidden ancestral beliefs tied to poltergeists and haunted houses the author shows how these unhappy spirits serve as confirmation of the supernatural beings that share the earth with us and of our relationship with the natural and unseen world a relationship we must take care to keep in balance
