adored for his exuberant and original architecture more than fifty years of morris lapidus's designs are celebrated in this first ever monograph known for inventing the postwar resort hotel with the fontainebleau and the eden roc in miami beach morris lapidus 1902-2001 is revered for his joyful interpretation of modernist tenets through an american vernacular of spectacle and whimsy lapidus enthusiastically embraced modernism's formal freedom and sensuality while rejecting its more rigid principles producing a unique style that seamlessly blends baroque fantasia with modernism's clean lines and flowing spaces his exuberant curving walls zigzagging facades and deft manipulation of space created dramatic forms that transform the moods of their occupants in 2000 lapidus was honored by the cooper hewitt as an american original an award created especially for him this comprehensive volume presents the highlights of Lapidus's extraordinary career from seductive modern shops and private residences to iconic hotels and residential towers in New York Miami Beach the Caribbean and beyond this iconoclast proves that too much is never enough product description

American architect Morris Lapidus is best known as the designer of glamorous postwar resort hotels in Florida such as the Fontainebleau 1954 and the Eden Roc 1955 in Miami Beach and the Americana in Bal Harbour 1956 yet in a remarkable sixty year career that began in 1926 he designed more than 500 retail stores hotels apartment complexes and stage sets that captured the popular spirit and changing face of Main Street America in the twentieth century Lapidus created fantasy environments in which America's middle class flush with expanding postwar incomes and optimism could fulfill its desire for glamor relaxed luxury and leisure his signature forms chevrons beanpoles woggles or amoeba shapes and curving walls and ceilings punctuated by cheese holes or cutouts have become treasured icons of American postwar vernacular architecture born in Russia in 1902 Lapidus was brought to New York by his parents a year later and the family first settled on the Lower East Side he completed his architecture degree at Columbia University and first earned a reputation by designing stage sets and retail stores in which he developed new theories in store design and essentially created the modern storefront as we now know it for his famed resort hotels of the 1950s Lapidus designed not only the vast structures but a melange of quasi French provincial and Italian Renaissance decorative elements that critics would dub Miami Beach French including everything from the tableware to his famous stairways to nowhere he was one of the first architects to acknowledge the cinema as an overriding influence on American taste

Morris Lapidus the famous mid century architect outraged the architectural profession and riled critics with an architecture that was popularly embraced his Miami Beach resort hotels the Fontainebleau the Eden Roc and the Bal Harbour Sheraton are synonymous with the glamour of Miami Beach in the 50s Lapidus hotels are infamous as the stomping grounds of the Rat Pack and their fellow movie stars yet during his life he was never published in architectural magazines and was discredited by the architectural profession before undergoing a renaissance as a prophet of postmodernism this book establishes the importance of his work and offers private insights into a man who once said why be exotic in private illustrations 60 illustrations the shopping mall is both the most visible and the most contentious symbol of american prosperity despite their convenience malls are routinely criticized for representing much that is wrong in america sprawl conspicuous consumption the loss of regional character and the decline of mom and pop stores so ubiquitous are malls that most people would be surprised to learn that they are the brainchild of a single person architect victor gruen an immigrant from austria who fled the nazis in 1938 gruen based his idea for the mall on an idealized america the dream of concentrated shops that would benefit the businessperson as well as the consumer and that would foster a sense of shared community modernist philip johnson applauded gruen for creating a true civic art and architecture that enriched americans daily lives and for decades he received praise from luminaries such as lewis mumford winthrop rockefeller and lady bird johnson yet in the end gruen returned to europe thoroughly disillusioned with his american dream in mall maker the first biography of this visionary spirit m jeffrey hardwick relates gruen s successes and failures his work at the 1939 world s fair his makeover of new york s fifth avenue boutiques his rejected plans for reworking entire communities such as fort worth texas and his crowning achievement the enclosed shopping mall throughout hardwick illuminates the dramatic shifts in american culture during the mid twentieth century notably the rise of suburbia and automobiles the death of downtown and the effect these changes had on american life gruen championed the redesign of suburbs and cities through giant shopping malls earnestly believing that he was promoting an american ideal the ability to build a community yet as malls began covering the landscape and downtowns became more depressed gruen became painfully aware that his dream of overcoming social problems through architecture and commerce was slipping away by the tumultuous year of 1968 it had disappeared victor gruen made america depend upon its shopping malls while they did not provide an invigorated sense of community as he had hoped they are enduring monuments to the lure of consumer culture
