this book charts the fascinating history of architectural theory from the renaissance to the present day addressing its subject country by country and featuring over 850 illustrations it offers a chronological overview of the most important architects and architectural theoreticians from alberti to koolhaas book jacket from the french origin of coca cola to mcdonald s sponsorship of the 2015 milan expo the book presents the first comparative history of these multinational corporations in two western european countries addressing some compelling questions to what extent our increasingly globalized world is persistently shaped by forms of american hegemony and what are some of the forces that have been most effective at challenging the relationship between americanization and globalization through the local history of global companies the book tells a new story about not only the influence of american businesses in europe but also the influence of european governments and societies on those american businesses and their adaptability made up of both material and symbolic elements the urban space is always dynamic and transitional it brings together or separates the past and the present the public and the private the center and the periphery the present volume focuses on the interaction between the social processes and spatial forms that shape the identity of italian cities using both canonical and less well known texts along with cultural artifacts the essays in the volume deprovincialize the italian city interpreting the material and symbolic practices that have made it into a unique entity whose enduring influence extends far outside Italy includes entries for maps and atlases
