this collection of conference papers embodies the results of research into the archives of mount athos all aspects of byzantine monasticism are covered dealing with questions of asceticism authority community economy enlightenment fortification liturgy music manuscripts hesychasm scandal spirituality and women these papers provide an overview of scholarship in the field

most of the papers included in this volume were first presented at a conference convened by the friends of mount athos at madingley hall cambridge in 2003 mount athos is the principal surviving centre of orthodox monasticism and the spiritual heart of the orthodox world the aims of the conference were to draw attention to the historic importance the spirituality and the religious legacy of the holy mountain and to shed light on the contribution made by athonite monasticism not only to worldwide orthodoxy but also to christianity at large many of the papers focus on particular individuals who from the fourteenth century to the twentieth have exemplified the spiritual traditions of athos and whose memory as spiritual fathers confessors and ascetics continues to inspire their successors today the appreciation of early christian and byzantine art as a sublime expression of religious thought and feeling is a comparatively modern phenomenon byzantine art is both static and dynamic static in the sense that once an image was established it was felt that no improvement was necessary dynamic in the sense that there was never one style and these styles or modes were constantly changing the story is not only complex in its unravelling but ranges widely over various media mosaic wall painting and painted panels sculpture in marble and ivory manuscript illumination gold silver and precious stones jewellery silk and rich vestments this enthralling account by a gifted medieval art historian should remain a standard work for many years to come back cover
