we are living on the boundary between the print and electronic era richard a jensen says that as we move into the electronic world we must seriously rethink most of what we do this book calls us to reinvestigate preaching in our time well grounded in an understanding of communication cultures this book is a rare gift in theory and practice jensen helps preachers rethink what they are doing and offers a strategy for effective communication in an electronic era richard l thulin th d dean and professor of preaching lutheran theological seminary at gettysburg gettysburg pennsylvania jensen s thinking in story thesis provides a scholarly logical rationale for why it both feels and is so right jensen applies his thinking in story concept to biblical material as well his approach helps us to see individual texts stories in light of the larger biblical story which opens up many new avenues for preaching thomas rogers assistant professor of homiletics pacific lutheran theological seminary berkeley california these are solid prescriptions for our media saturated times calling for a shift in our very approach to proclamation jensen is quite right in this goal that preaching needs to compel participation in the narratives of scripture not merely an understanding of them james nieman assistant professor of homiletics wartburg theological seminary dubuque iowa richard a jensen is a trained systematic theologian having taught these subjects at wartburg theological seminary dubuque iowa from 1971 1981 he is author of telling the story since 1982 he has served in the communication department of the american lutheran church and the evangelical lutheran church in america he produces the weekly radio program lutheran vespers and several series of television programs preaching from inside the story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice capitalizing on the works of craddock and lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching this book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging aristotle s foundational understanding of narrative and renew the lowry loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture preaching from inside the story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way however in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching in the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching this book is a hidden history of bletchley park during the second world war which explores the agency from a social and gendered perspective it examines themes such as the experience of wartime staff members the town in which the agency was situated and the cultural influences on the wartime evolution of the agency
