the first major study on the works of the mexican novelist angeles mastretta demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author s fiction and essays the mexican novelist angeles mastretta b 1949 has only recently received serious critical attention largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study this first major work to be published on Mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays in the tradition of post-boom Latin American women's writing. Mastretta's texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women. Two of her novels, Referential and Testimonial in style, can be placed within the Mexican revolutionary novel tradition and explore the revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives. The hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in Mastretta's texts are also considered in this volume. Her feminist works avoid facile simplifications; heterogeneous and dialogical, they interweave the historical and the fictional, the everyday and the fantastic. The originality of Mastretta's writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities; shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis. Jane Elizabeth Lavery, Lectures in Latin American Studies at the University of Kent.

This book explores the question of female identity and subjectivity through a series of articles on Spanish and Latin American women writers. Collaborators to this commemorative volume include such internationally known scholars such as Randolph Pope, Eunice Myers, María Salgado, María Elena Bravo, etc. This volume affords the opportunity to read some fine articles that shed light on the work of various Hispanic women writers. Kathleen M. Glenn, Revista de Estudios Hispánicos.

La muestra presenta las obras realizadas por Ángeles Santos durante los tres años de su juventud que pasó en Valladolid.

During the last decade, women's narrative has become a recognized force in Mexican letters. The essays in this collection explore the recent work of nine contemporary Mexican women writers. Many of the works have been translated into English; some like Laura Esquivel's Like Water for Chocolate have become international best sellers. The unprecedented commercial success of these novels has generated mixed reactions. At the same time that the secondary status afforded women's narrative has come to be questioned in many academic circles, some authors are dissociating themselves from women's writing. The essays in this volume address these issues, providing a much needed contribution to the study of women's narrative.
