the pacific islands are feeling the effects of globalisation free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of fiji s key industries at the same time other opportunities are emerging labour migration is growing in importance and pacific governments are calling for more access to australia s labour market fiji has joined samoa tonga tuvalu and kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas meantime papua new guinea and solomon islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources the pacific islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation the modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world just as often politicians in the pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes the contributors to this volume examine pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives they come from papua new guinea solomon islands hawaii the federated states of micronesia samoa fiji new zealand and jamaica as well as australia publisher s description
