the city state of singapore is a relatively recent arrival on the world stage singapore has achieved the remarkable transformation of transforming itself from a third world to a first world entity within the span of just one generation it was founded by a prescient englishman sir stamford raffles a visionary who saw the potential for an expanding british empire from february 1819 until february 1942 english presence continued and expanded until the japanese invaded and occupied the territory the fall of singapore heralded the end of the british empire a time when other colonies were wakened to assert their independence from the colonial yoke initially singapore was to join the malaysian federation but political differences resulted in the expulsion of the small state on the same day of that expulsion singapore became independent lee kuan yew a remarkable man then assumed the helm of the new country his political acumen oversaw the transformation of this city state into a modern powerhouse a remarkable achievement singapore has become a place of advanced trade the desired tourist attraction amidst economic and political stability this achievement is the more remarkable since singapore has limited land and no natural resources its only resource is a deep harbor sufficient for entrepot trade it is this singular feature that has been exploited to the fullest entering singaporean waters reflects on a remarkable scene dozens of ships of every flag and purpose from industry to cruise liner awaits entry to its ports i describe the scene and setting together with the remarkable man whose influences are still present among the three different communities comprising singapore chinese malaysian and english speakers though democratic the singaporean government is paternalistic with the greatest care exerted in how different people can live together in harmony and this city state is doubly remarkable for the integrity of its government and people i was amazed to see a full sized umbrella leaning in a corner of the subway with none who entered or left the car removing it from its perch what other city can boast such a standard i also describe the jewish community here how they live in this city state while israel and israeli advisors remain in the background though exerting great influence on singaporean defense and military preparedness this is a remarkable place and its founders set the standard that continues today showcasing the substantive and multi faceted singapore china relationship this book examines the political economic socio cultural people to people and even military exchanges between the two countries it also highlights flagship projects and other key private sector led projects that have become hallmarks of bilateral cooperation the book argues that the current level of cooperation is built on the earlier foundation laid by lee kuan yew and deng xiaoping in a way the bilateral relationship is a unique one for one deng xiaoping had singled out singapore as a model for china's reforms and china today continues to find singapore's experience relevant singapore is also learning from china in the process the two countries also have a number of bilateral institutional mechanisms that have become more important in reviewing existing cooperation and identifying new ways of working together rather than simply provide an overview of bilateral relations the book highlights the unique or distinguishing features of the singapore china relationship when after three decades of research singapore could produce its own water the little city state was said to have lost its vulnerability no longer would every policy have to bend at the knees for water survival it was finally time to celebrate liberty when did the same moment come in bala s life was it when in mid atlantic he heard of his promotion as controller of posts or was it when he was appointed by the president as member of the parliamentary elections minority committee or was it at a moment of tragic loss when he realised he had nothing more to lose singapore my country tells m bala subramanion's story a second generation indian who lost his father to the death railway witnessed subhas chandra bose at the padang and later emerged as not only a senior civil servant but the man behind multiple social interventions living in a fast evolving singapore the histories of the man and his nation remain seamlessly intertwined each peppered with equal doses of endeavour ingenuity and a

sheer will to survive the late mr lee kuan yew 1923 2015 laid the foundations for the creation of a first world education system in singapore like many other issues concerning the country his ideas for education were transported in a red box which he took with him wherever he went even up to his last days inside it was always something designed to help create a better life for all singaporeans the editors of this volume were inspired by the idea of mr lee's red box and by the founding father's selfless drive to continuously improve the country he loved as such the book explores in detail mr lee's plans including chapters on education the man and his ideas foundational pillars of singapore's education education for nationhood and nation building and 21st century readiness and adaptability the chapters also include the authors visions no matter how great or small for the future of education in singapore they explore how mr lee's educational policies resulted in a system that attracts the right and best candidates to become teachers that forms them into effective teachers specialists and leaders that ensures they and the education system are able to deliver the best possible learning for every child and that establishes a legacy that has allowed the education system to continue to move forward while tackling the challenges of its success from the little red box came the ideas that led to the country's meteoric rise likewise the editors hope this book will lead to a brighter future in education a general history of the chinese in singapore documents over 700 years of chinese history in singapore from chinese presence in the region through the millennium old hokkien trading world to the waves of mass migration that came after the establishment of a british settlement and through to the development and birth of the nation across 38 chapters and parts readers are taken through the complex historical mosaic of overseas chinese social economic and political activity in singapore and the region such as the development of maritime junk trade plantation industries and coolie labour the role of different bangs clan associations and secret societies as well as chinese leaders the diverging political allegiances including sun yat sen's revolutionary activities and the national salvation movement leading up to the second world war the transplanting of traditional chinese religions the changing identity of the overseas chinese and the developments in language and education policies publishing arts and more with pride in our past legacy for our future as its key objective this volume aims to preserve the singapore chinese story history and heritage for future generations as well as keep our cultures and traditions alive therefore the book aims to serve as a comprehensive guide for singaporeans new immigrants and foreigners to have an epitome of the singapore society this publication is supported by the national heritage board's heritage project grant related link s this book presents an interdisciplinary study that straddles four academic fields namely autobiography stylistics narratology and translation studies it shows that foregrounding is manifested in the language of autobiography alerting readers to an authorial tone with certain ideological affiliations in refuting the presumed conflation between the author narrator and character in autobiography the study emphasizes readers role in constructing an implied author the issues of implied translator assumed translation and rewriting are explored through a comparative analysis of the english and chinese autobiographies by singapore s founding father lee kuan yew the analysis identifies different foregrounding practices and attributes these differences to an implied translator further evidence derived from narrative communicative situations in the two autobiographies underscores divergent personae of the implied authors the study aims to establish a deeper understanding of how translation and rewriting have a far reaching impact on the self and world making functions of autobiography this book will be of special interest to scholars and students of linguistics literature translation and political science this book presents research on the situation minority language schoolchildren face when they need to learn languages of international communication in particular english the book takes minority languages as a starting point and it bridges local and global perspectives in the analysis of multilingual education contexts it examines the interaction of minority languages and cultures majority languages and lingua franca in a variety of settings across different regions and countries on all continents even though all chapters in this book involve minority languages the issues discussed are relevant to any context in which more than language is used in education the book reveals challenges and opportunities of multilingual education by discussing issues such as northern and southern concepts language education policies language diversity interethnic understanding multimodal language practices power conflict identity and prestige among many others this is the volume that finally accounts for multilingual education from a truly multilingual perspective by involving proposals and research from a variety of multilingual speech communities in the world the linguistically rich ethiopia and mexico can teach the poor europe and other northern countries about multilingual education clil promoters may learn from finnish sámí and canadian innu and mi gmaq indigenous communities as well as from basque results speakers and teachers of minority and international languages will certainly be glad to hear the news there is no need for a monolingual bias or tunnel vision in acquiring english in non english speaking communities this volume includes new challenging pedagogical perspectives while pointing to interesting conclusions for worldwide educational authorities maria pilar safont jordà universitat jaume i castelló spain
