when nancy friday began her research for my mother my self in the early 1970 s no work existed that explored the unique interaction between mother and daughter today psychotherapists throughout the world acknowledge that if women are to be able to love without possessing to find work that fulfills them and to discover their full sexuality they must first acknowledge their identity as separate from their mother's nancy friday's book played a major role in that acceptance the greatest gift a good mother can give remains unquestioning love planted deep in the first year of life so deep and anassailable that the tiny child grown to womanhood is never held back by the fear of losing that love no matter what her own choice in love sexuality or work may be through candid self disclosure and hundreds of interviews friday investigates a generational legacy and reveals the conflicting feelings of anger hate and love the daughter's hold for their mothers and why they so often become that mother themselves behind the persona of one of australia's most well known comedians here is the story of the real shaun micallef whoever he is firmly grounded in the day to day reality of being a mother the complete buddhism for mothers gives personal and honest advice based on buddhist teachings as applied to the everyday challenges of bringing up children please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 i have always lied to my mother i was not her whole life and she knew it i was not the woman she wanted to be and she knew that too 2 mothers may love their children but they sometimes do not like them the same woman who may be willing to put her body between her child and a runaway truck may resent the day by day sacrifice the child unknowingly demands of her time sexuality and self development 3 the hardest thing to face in mother is her sexuality we took on her anxieties fears and angers and we weave the web of emotion between ourselves and others based on what we had with her we never escape the image of how she was in our sexual lives 4 the mother daughter relationship is often filled with confusion and distrust which is caused by the mother's difficulty in communicating her true feelings and intentions to her daughter
