in presented discourse in popular science olga a pilkington explores the forms and functions of the voices of scientists in books written for non professionals this study confirms the importance of considering presentation of discourse outside of literary fiction popular science uses presented discourse in ways uncommon for fiction yet not conventional for non fiction either this analysis is an acknowledgement of the social consequences of popularization discourse presentation of scientists reconstructs the world of the scientific community as a human space but also projects back into it an image of the scientist the public wants to see at the same time pilkington s findings strengthen the view of popularization that rejects the notion of a strict divide between professional and popular science the ius municipale magdeburgense the magdeburg weichbild in the silesian małopolska compilation was the most important collection of magdeburg law applied in the cities of the medieval kingdom of poland this volume includes not only the critical editions of three texts corresponding to the main development of the weichbild but also marginal notes by contemporary and later users in latin polish and german providing valuable insights into the legal workings of the late middle ages and the renaissance an english translation of the official text of 1506 completes the work multitasking refers to performance of multiple tasks the most prominent types of multitasking are situations including either temporal overlap of the execution of multiple tasks i e dual tasking or executing multiple tasks in varying sequences i e task switching in the literature numerous attempts have aimed at theorizing about the specific characteristics of executive functions that control interference between simultaneously and or sequentially active component of task sets in these situations however these approaches have been rather vague regarding explanatory concepts e g task set inhibition preparation shielding capacity limitation widely lacking theories on detailed mechanisms and or empirical evidence for specific subcomponents the present research topic aims at providing a selection of contributions on the details of executive functioning in dual task and task switching situations the contributions specify these executive functions by focusing on 1 fractionating assumed mechanisms into constituent subcomponents 2 their variations by age or in clinical subpopulations and or 3 their plasticity as a response to practice and training experience the fullness of life that jesus promises by learning how to engage with the present even in the increasing busyness of work and family life do you ever wonder how long can you keep grinding out eighty hour work weeks putting your marriage on the backburner treating your employees like cogs in a machine pushing your life aside before you realize your time is all up at the heart of this collaborative project is the belief that the pain we experience is the result of absence living disconnected from our authentic selves and lacking deep meaningful relationships with others and with god daniel montgomery the founding pastor of sojourn community church kenny silva a phd candidate at trinity international university and eboni webb who holds a doctorate of clinical psychology pooled their efforts and expertise to focus on the problem of modern absence and the pain it causes us and those around us this book is a guide for how to cultivate a self awareness that empowers you to take ownership and engage in every area of influence it s arranged into five sections each focusing on one of the major areas of our lives where many of us struggle with absence time place body others story how to be present in an absent world provides biblical practical ways to handle the daily pressures of life without denying or escaping the present its goal is to help you rediscover what it means to show up for your own life with interludes that offer a deep dive into the neurobiology of presence as well as principles and exercises that dr webb employs in her clinical practice montgomery and his coauthors will equip you with the kind of self understanding that allows you to realize god s design for human flourishing whether in your church in your job or in your family
